

Commuters Win Supreme Court Decision in 3-Year Fight Against Greyhound

The United States Supreme Court ruled in favor of a three-year long battle waged by commuters of Contra Costa in their plea to halt Greyhound Corporation from turning over commute service to a separate corporation. Greyhound had received authorization from the Interstate Commerce Commission to turn over its commute service to the Golden Gate Transit Lines. This corporation was to have served residents within a 30 miles radius of San Francisco. THE SUPREME COURT decision, on a 5-4 vote, said the ICC could not authorize an interstate bus company to transfer its suburban operations to a subsidiary without state approval.

In 1955 Greyhound had won a fight before the ICC arguing that interstate and statewide operations should not have to make up the admitted losses of commuter buses. The California State Public Utilities Commission opposed the action of the ICC and on behalf of itself and the commuters of Contra Costa and Marin counties, filed a written protest with the ICC prior to the ICC's final decision. AFTER THE DECISION in July of 1955 by the ICC in which the permission was granted, commuter clubs of Contra Costa and Marin along with the PUC challenged the ICC authorization in a complaint filed before a special three-judge United States District Court in San Francisco. Following the hearings, the three judges upheld the decision of the ICC in allowing Greyhound to turn over its commute services to Golden Gate Transit Lines. The commuters with PUC support appealed to the United States Supreme Court. THE STATE PUBLIC Utilities Commission, which had not been consulted, did not formally intervene before the ICC, but it did issue a statement saying that it was "Unable to perceive how the transfer would help the public." Commuters have long contended that the change-over would result in higher rates for commuting. The commuters, in their appeal, charged that the purpose of the transfer was to avoid the rate making policies of the state utility commission. Spurgeon Avakian, attorney for the commuters, argued before the high tribunal "What Greyhound is doing is to cut off the weak member of the system to founder for itself and probably to die in the bankruptcy court." The Supreme Court ruling sends the case back to the ICC to consider "only the interstate bus rights involved." ALL INTRA-STATE rights, the main point in the case, will be decided by the PUC, if Greyhound decides to file a petition for the transfer. Exact plans of Greyhound were not available as The Sun went to press.

Candidates Will Speak Wednesday

Election time is upon us, and from the hills and valleys of the area can be heard a frantic scurrying as residents compare notes, search through old papers for candidates' statements, and work hard toward becoming "informed citizens."

But there is an easier way. All candidates for major posts in the area, plus congress and the state assembly, will present themselves and their views Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m. at Acalanes High School Gymnasium, when The Sun presents its Annual Sun Candidates Night.

It will be a long, but interesting program, and the keyword is promptness. Each candidate will have five minutes, and a question and answer period will follow each "race." Time limits will be strictly observed, and there will be a loud buzzer to silence any candidate who attempts to overstay his allotted time at the microphone.

USHERING WILL BE provided by members of local Junior Chamber of Commerce organizations, and there will be plenty of seating for everybody.

Candidates will be seated on the stage in groups, so that those having other commitments during the evening can leave without disturbing the program.

Similarly, the time schedule can be worked out by interested residents who wish to arrive for any given series of candidates' talks.

The program will feature speakers running for Superior Court, Assessor, Supervisor, Walnut Creek Justice Court Judge, Assembly, Congress, Sheriff, and District Attorney.

FIRST TO SPEAK at 7:30 p.m. will be candidates for Third District supervisor: Tom Coll, William Goheen, William McKintosh and Ray S. Taylor. Second on the program will be candidates for assessor of Contra Costa, Warren Lamb, Ernest Marchi, Oscar Johnson and C. L. Dunklee.

Superior Court Judge Thomas Fraga and candidate for Department Six of the Contra Costa Superior Court Thomas McBride will speak next.

Following the judge, candidates will be 10th District Assembly aspirants Sam Conti and Jerry Waldie who will be followed by a representative for John Baldwin and Howard Jewell. Baldwin is the Republican incumbent from the Sixth United States Congressional District.

THE INCUMBENT sheriff, Harry A. Brown, and four candidates for the office, Charles Myhre, Ronald Orin, Ray Stoffels and Walt Young, will follow the congressional speakers.

Francis Collins and John Nejedly, candidate for district attorney, will be permitted five minutes each for their presentation as will all other speakers during the evening.

Housing Authority Report by Grand Jury Expected Monday says Foreman

Final opinion of the Contra Costa Grand Jury on charges alleging irregularities in the operations of the Contra Costa County Housing Authority will be issued Monday, according to William Hale Jr. of Diablo, foreman.

The county jurors met Monday night in the third session of hearings on the housing authority, but issued a statement that they hoped to be ready to issue a report Monday.

DURING THE past weeks, the county jurors have heard testimony from the commissioners of the authority, J. J. Sullivan, federal investigator, the authority's auditor and a resigned commissioner.

The Housing Authority of Contra Costa was first charged with irregularities by Fred Anthon, ousted maintenance superintendent.

As a partial result of his charges, Ronald A. Howard, former executive director of the authority was convicted of stealing government pipe for his home in Alhambra Valley and was sentenced following a jury trial in federal court to 18 months at McNeil Island Federal Prison, ter.

He is now serving his term there.

OTHER CHARGES have been made against commissioners and employees of the Housing authority by ousted personnel and present members of the authority.

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors acted in the matter also by asking the commissioners to appear before them.

Answers to the charges of irregularities first printed in The Sun were made by Anthon, April, 1957.

The past grand jury directed the commissioners of the authority to answer the charges alleging a number of irregularities in the operation of the county agency of the Public Housing administration.

The answers to the grand jury were prepared by Howard and A. F. Bray, attorney for the authority at the direction of the commissioners.

The grand jury, after receiving the answers, which past Foreman Phil Bancroft Jr. termed incomplete, attempted to subpoena a federal investigator on the mat-

Chamber Sees Landscape Plan For Crossroads

Members of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce this week detailed plans for the landscaping and beautification of the community.

Presenting the plans at this week's Chamber meeting, were Mrs. Paul L. Pollaczek, Orinda Garden Club, and Bob Waschmirth, Chamber member, both members of the Orinda Beautification Committee.

Mrs. Pollaczek noted that it would probably cost between $1,500 and $2,500 to plant 63 trees in Redwood tubs to "camouflage" the back of stores as seen from the freeway off-ramp.

On the importance of planting trees along the ramp, Mrs. Pollaczek said, "The landscaping would integrate the business area of Orinda into the beautiful surroundings of the area. It would be good business to do this, because it would attract people from the highway. The trend of business districts to landscape in order to attract more business."

Mrs. Pollaczek presented a detailed drawing, showing proposals for planting in the downtown sector. The plan includes the planting of evergreen trees along the highway and flowering Chestnuts along Bryant Way.

Waschmirth said that if the program were carried out, it would increase the property value of the area.

John Ogden, Chamber member, spoke on financing and said that approximately 40 stores would be involved in the proposed program.

The Chamber commended the plan and suggested that detailed plans for financing be drawn up for presentation at a later Chamber meeting.

In other business, the Chamber voted to endorse the $232 million EBMUD bond issue in June.

Chamber members voted for the slate of officers as presented by the nominating committee. New president of the Chamber is John Ogden, vice-president Bud Leiber, and secretary, Clarence Betz.

Acalanes High School voters on Tuesday returned William Freeman and William Lee to their posts as trustees.

The final count was as follows: Freeman, 4202; Lee, 3960; Roy Mangini, 1626.

Freeman was appointed to complete the term of Mrs. Melvin Jacobus of Lafayette, in May 1951.

Lee was appointed to fill out the term of Donald Mitchell last December.

The terms are for three years. The voting was as follows: with Freeman, Lee and Mangini listed in that order: Canyon, 17-15-6; Moraga, 74-85-51; Lafayette, 1016-961-269; Orinda, 875-774-285; Walnut Creek, 2220-2125-1015.

AFTER SPEAKING at the Orinda Church May 15 before the Orinda Republican Women's Club, Governor Goodwin J. Knight takes a few moments out from a busy schedule to speak with Mrs. Robert Powell and Mrs. Melvin Kennedy. With Knight are Donald D. Doyle, 10th District Assemblyman (R-Lafayette) and Mrs. Knight.

Church Carnival Is On Saturday

A carnival — the time when everyone can act as they want, and throw sophistication to the wind. Saturday, noon to 6:30, is the day set for the annual Pilgrim Fellowship carnival, and the date when everyone can act a little crazy, and no one will care.

There will be booths of all designs — peewee golf, midget cars, baseball throw and penny pitch, as well as hot dogs, cakes, drinks and cotton candy to eat for lunch, dinner, or a snack.

Best of all, there will be fun and excitement for everyone — from the youngest tot to the oldest oldster, all can be sure of a good time.

Gov. Knight Discusses Sputniks and Politics

On Thursday, May 15th, the Orinda Republican Women's Club was addressed by Gov. Goodwin J. Knight.

Mrs. Knight, who accompanied her husband, was presented to the large audience by Mrs. Melvin Jacobus, program chairman.

Donald Doyle, Lafayette, who is serving his last term as State Assemblyman from the 10th District, introduced the Governor.

After praising Doyle's record in the Assembly and predicting that the young man will one day become a political figure of statewide importance, Gov. Knight informed the group of the Russian's third Sputnik.

He said that in the light of present world happenings and, in particular, vice-president Nixon's reception abroad, we must re-evaluate our foreign policy. He advocated viewing with great caution any more aid to satellite countries whether they profess engaged

$30,000 Orinda Flood Damage Repairs Okayed

The Board of Supervisors has advertised bids for the repair of five slippouts in the Orinda area. Bids will be received June 10, at 11 a.m.

The slippouts are part of the damage inflicted by the heavy spring storms and are located on Charles Hill Road, Via Floreodo, Sleepy Hollow Lane, East Altamira Drive, and Camine Sobrante, near Vias Dorados.

The work is to be done under the provisions of a special storm damage repair contract based on a cost-plus-a-bid-percentage contract.

The work to be done consists generally of removing the unstable slippout to a stable foundation and installing subdrainage facilities and replacing the slippout with compacted fill material and repaving.

The actual amount of work done at any one job site will depend upon local soil and drainage conditions.

The work will follow the recommendations of a firm of soil consultants employed to investigate these and other storm damage problems.

Decision Follows Meet Of Civic Affairs Group

By FRED HILL

The Orinda Association Board of Directors this week voted in favor of backing a community musical production, after the manner of the "Absurdia in Suburbia" shows which were discontinued three years ago.

The board's vote came after members sat in on a meeting of the Association's Civic Affairs Committee on Monday.

With representatives of 25 neighborhood organizations present at the Civic Affairs Committee meeting, seven groups voted in favor of the community show, nine groups voted "no" and nine groups abstained from the voting.

After hearing the discussion on the matter, and after hearing the vote within the committee, the board left the meeting and voted in favor of the Association's sponsoring the musical review. No name for the production has been selected.

THE BOARD'S MONDAY night vote gave the long-awaited green light for the show's directors, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Downs, interior decorators, to begin planning the event for next spring.

According to Mr. and Mrs. Downs, a large contingent of Orindans have already indicated their willingness to help out in all phases of the production.

When the subject of the "Absurdia" revival was first broached, the Association board moved to "accept in principle" the sponsorship and underwriting of the community musical spoof on suburban living.

Later the board referred the show to the civic affairs committee for a vote of member organizations. Though the organizations voted down the Association's sponsoring the show, organization representatives agreed to solicit the organizations for $25 donations.

At the last meeting of the Association's board, board members decided to see how many organizations were willing to contribute to the fund for the show.

AT THE CIVIC AFFAIRS meeting Monday, seven organizations out of the 25 present indicated that they would contribute $25 toward getting the musical off the ground.

In other Civic Affairs committee business Monday, the committee voted to endorse EBMUD June bond issue in the amount of $232 million.

Dick Bartle, chairman of the Association's planning committee, outlined the 1955 Master Plan for Orinda, which has not been adopted yet.

"We are now at the point," Bartle said, "where the county desires to adopt a general plan for the county."

He stated that Orinda's civic and neighborhood associations should be thinking about proposals which could be included in the general plan.

Bartle passed out questionnaires which he had received from the county concerning the plan.

Items, Bartle said, which Orindans should be considering in the plan are:

1. Low density housing.
2. Shopping areas to provide for future growth.
3. Multiple family housing.

Orinda's Television 'Pipeline' Runs Dry

Orinda's cable television system is about to close up shop, according to Weldon F. Williams, who has been active in the drive to recruit enough new subscribers to keep the cable link going.

William A. Gentry, operator of the Martiney firm which has been "piping" signals into Orinda's "television-proof" area, had served notice in January that additional subscribers would be necessary if the service were to be continued.

This week Gentry sent the following letter to Williams:

"We have made many attempts to find a solution to continuing the present cable system in Orinda. After four months, we have come to the conclusion that it will be impossible to consider any further service.

Williams stated that a balance of $13.38 which was left as his subscription committee concluded its work has been turned over to the "Helping Hand Fund" at the American Trust Bank in Orinda.

The money was the remainder of the collection taken up in January to defray costs incurred by the subscription committee.

Mrs. Gilwee, J. G. Ainsworth On School Board

J. Gordon Ainsworth and Ruth C. Gilwee were elected to posts on the Orinda School Board in Tuesday's School District elections.

Ainsworth polled 881 votes, Mrs. Gilwee 809.

Ainsworth is an advertising and public relations man.

Mrs. Gilwee has been an Orinda resident for the past 14 years and has two children in local schools.

Thieves Loot Service Station

Thieves this week made off with more than $200 worth of tires from the Edward DeLaveago Chevron station, 11 Orinda Highway, according to the Sheriff's office.

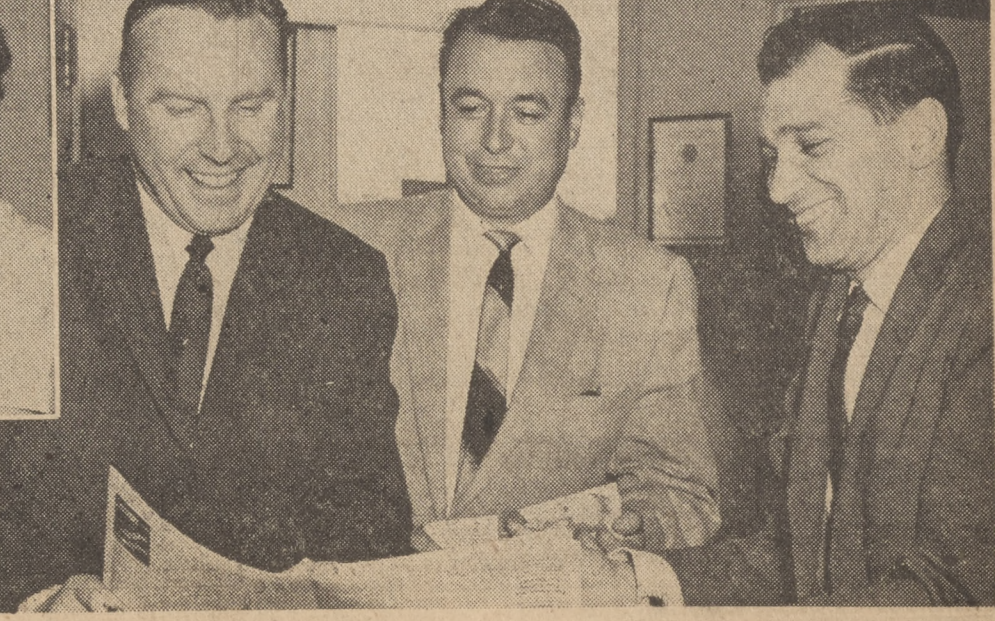

Entrance was made through a window, investigating officers said, and the tires were apparently passed out the window by one thief to his accomplices.

GOVERNOR GOODWIN J. KNIGHT toured The Sun plant May 15. In the composing room were Bob DeTar, foreman; Herman Silverman, editor and publisher; Mrs. Knight, Governor Knight, Donald D. Doyle, Assemblyman; and Don Bonar, campaign leader; Gene Bell is in foreground.

'FRONT OFFICE' EMPLOYEES met Governor Knight and his wife during the tour. Mrs. Knight holds roses presented by the staff while the governor looks over a "proof story" of his visit to the area. With the governor are Iris Teuscher, office manager; Vera Holmes and Flora DeSoto.

CONGRESSMAN PAT HILLINGS, left, candidate for Attorney General on the Republican ticket dropped into The Sun plant May 15, following the Governor's tour. With Hillings are Ted Barcelona, area chairman of Hillings' campaign and Herman Silverman.

Eleven eighth grade girls from Troop 198 and two from Troop 214 received Girl Scout's highest award, the Curved Bar, Friday evening at the Orinda Community Church.

Mrs. Harry Oliphant, leader of the troop, presented the bars earned in the "out-of-doors" category to Judy Jones, Cathy Oliphant, Joanne Elkington, Mary Gillivan, Linnet Trefts, Linda Van Sickle, Suzanne Portello, Betsy Hughes, Marcia Jacobs, Jill Taylor and Patty Smallwood.

Pack 212 of Orinda recently held their last meeting of the semester, winding up activities with awards-presentation and a Webelos graduation held in the Fellowship Hall of the Orinda Community Church.

A humorous skit, in which all cubs took part, was conducted by outgoing Scoutmaster William Haake, followed by a Webelos candlelight ceremony led by Clint Scarich. Under the direction of William Lee, a rope contest was performed by the Webelos boys and following awards, Frank Ritter, District Commissioner, presented a Pack Charter and President's Award ribbons to the group.

Rotarians See Volkswagon Film

The Orinda Rotary Club, at its noon meeting Wednesday viewed a film on the production of Volkswagon automobiles at the German factory.

A representative of the firm was at the meeting to explain that the company is building a second plant at Hanover to expand production. The original factory is about 30 miles distant from the metropolitan area and is therefore difficult to recruit workers, he said.

Joe Longacre was the program chairman and Robeson Smith presided. Smith also gave a resume of the district conference last week at Dunsmuir.

Rheem Post Office Wins Round in Moraga Feud

If a recommendation made this week by Congressman John Baldwin to the Postal Department is carried out, there will still be a post office at Rheem. However, the post office could be renamed "Rheem Valley."

Baldwin's recommendation this week for the retention of the post office in Rheem Center marks the latest development in the running battle between proponents of the Moraga Post Office and the backers of the postal station in the shopping center.

In a letter to A. C. Petersen, director of the Post Office Department in Washington, D.C., Baldwin recommended that a recommendation of the Rheem post office be continued.

Baldwin had been asked for a recommendation on the issue by Petersen.

The post office row dates back to August when the Moraga Community Club charged that operation of the Rheem post office as

Merchants Here Draw a Salute

Because they have the knack of combining aesthetics and dollar-signs, Orinda businessmen recently got a pat on the back from some fellow-merchants a few miles down the road.

Lafayette merchants, seeking an off-ramp from the freeway to funnel more customers into town, have also come to realize that "appeal" is a factor in drawing trade.

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce, Chamber President Stanford White told of a friend who had just completed a cross-country trip.

"My friend," White said, "told me that in travelling some 3,000 miles he didn't see any community that has done a better job than Orinda in beautifying the downtown area."

With an eye toward Orinda, Lafayette businessmen are now mapping an extensive beautification program of their own.

Orinda Student Will See France

Linda Lancione, Miramonte High School junior, this week was informed by American Field Services that she will spend six months in France during the coming school year.

Lancione has been accepted under the AFS School Program and will depart for France sometime next fall. She will return home at about New Year's time, according to her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lancione, of Orinda.

Librarians Meet

Librarians from the 29 branch libraries including the two Bookmobiles in the Contra Costa County Library system met at the Elks Club in Walnut Creek for the annual branch staff meeting called by Mrs. Bertha D. Hellum, County Librarian.

The morning program included discussion of current library service problems with the county library headquarters staff.

A film on county library service, "Books for All," produced by the Syracuse University and borrowed from the California State Library, was shown.

Luncheon was followed by a talk by Mrs. Hellum on recent developments and future planning in the county library organization.

Heart Group Honors Its Volunteers

Highlight of the Open House held by the Contra Costa County Heart Association recently at the new headquarters at 2030 North Main, Walnut Creek, was an award ceremony.

Dr. Howard Flanders, president, presented the Association's pin to volunteers who led local areas in the 1958 Heart Sunday drive in February.

Those present who received pins included Walter Ratcliff, Concord; Heart Fund chairman; Mrs. Norman Hodgkin, Lafayette; Mrs. Charles Jack, Walnut Creek; Mrs. Marvin Epstein, Alamo; Mrs. Robert Mainhardt, Danville; Mrs. Alfred Marshall, Pleasant Hill; Mrs. John Bernavich, Mrs. James Christensen, Concord.

MARION NEFF, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Neff, 8 Great Oak Circle, Orinda, was awarded a pin for volunteer service during campaigns since she was eight years old. Marion's mother is a regular volunteer for the Heart Association.

Certificates of appreciation, awarded for the first time this year, were given to three volunteers.

Mrs. W. B. Marschner, Walnut Creek, was presented with a certificate for service for the past four years in which she has chaired a hundred of volunteer hours serving as treasurer and working on the budget and books of the association.

Mrs. J. H. Schfarck, Orinda, secretary of the organization, was another recipient of this honor. A member of the Board of Directors for four years, she has served as chairman of volunteers and three years as Orinda Heart Sunday chairman.

MRS. HAROLD POWELL, Lafayette, was the third volunteer to be honored. A member of the Board of Directors for three years, Mrs. Powell serves as publicity chairman.

Dr. Flanders presented certificates to Tri-Hi-Y, Las Lomas High School, Walnut Creek; Pittsburg DeMolays, and the Cabrillo Civic Club, Martinez, for volunteer assistance to the Heart Fund.

He stated that the fund goal was $54,395.00 and expressed the hope that Memorial Day contributions in memory of loved ones who have been victims of heart disease may help swell the total for the year.

Golf Tourney Is Tomorrow

East Bay Golf professionals will adopt a new role on the day of the second Annual Dotsen Sports Institute Golf Invitational tomorrow.

Because of the big gallery expected to watch celebrities perform at the Dotsen, five of the top pros will do the colorful garb of Gallery Marshall to keep the crowd in an orderly fashion.

Pat Patten, head pro at Orinda Country Club has gathered his pals Norm Tauscher of Diablo, Dewey Longworth of Claremont, Ted Neist of Sequoyah, Bill Corbett of Castlewood and the veteran Scotchman from the Royal and Ancient at Saint Andrews' "Scotty" Russell to keep law and order.

Last year over 500 galleryites swarmed Orinda's course to follow Crosby, Harvie Ward and other amateur stars.

This year, with ladies from the Children's Hospital of the East Bay selling gallery tickets for the Dotsen event, the golfer's following could go as high as 2,000, weather permitting.

Attend Conference

Orindans Donald P. Krotz, Bruce G. McCauley, and King Wilkin attended a one-day conference of the Society for the Advancement of Management in San Francisco. The use of professional consultants was the subject.

Goyak's Comment On Collins' Behalf Receives Answers

Supervisors Mel F. Nielsen and Ray S. Taylor this week explained statements of supervisorial chairman Ivan Goyak, first district, concerning the campaign of District Attorney Francis Collins in the supervisorial chambers May 6.

At the board meeting, Goyak raised Collins and endorsed his reelection.

The matter at hand, at the time the statements were made, was a Pleasant Hill Civic Council resolution asking that the private practice of the district attorney be stopped including the private practice of the district attorney's deputies.

Nielsen stated that he permitted the statements made by Goyak because they were the personal opinion of the chairman and not the opinion of the board. "I feel the chairman can make these statements if he is not speaking for the board. I'm certain that he was not," Nielsen noted.

Taylor said that he has no personal opinion in the matter of full time or part time district attorney until the voters of his district (Third Supervisorial) go to the polls June 3.

"I feel that this is a matter which must be decided at the polls. If the public condones private practice at the primaries in June — so will I."

"Goyak can say anything he wants to at the board meetings, but I will wait until elections to decide on the resolution of the civic council."

"I will say, however, that the study which is being made by the county administrator on costs in the district attorney's office will also enter into my final decision," Taylor concluded.

Orinda Garden Club Meeting

The final meeting for the Orinda Garden Club, until Fall, is set for Tuesday, May 27, at ten o'clock.

Schools Unification: Big District vs. 3 Small Ones

The alternatives of unifying Central County high schools and elementary schools into one giant "Acalanes" district, or into three smaller districts, with a single high school in each one, are being considered by the County Committee on School District Organization.

County Superintendent B. O. Wilson and State Superintendent Roy Simpson have been requested to prepare information on the alternatives.

They will be scrutinized in detail this fall.

THEY ARE as follows:

1. Unification of the entire Acalanes area, including the present high school district and Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Moraga, Canyon and Orinda Union elementary, placing all grades from kindergarten through high school under one board and one administration.

2. Unification of the schools into three districts, each including the high school in its area. The districts could include the following:

A district containing the present Walnut Creek Elementary District plus Sun Valley, with Las Lomas High School. A DISTRICT containing the present Lafayette Elementary District, without Sun Valley but including the Rheem area, and also Acalanes High School.

A district containing the Orinda-Moraga-Canyon districts, without Rheem, but including Miramonte High School.

Assessed valuation per student, tax rates, bonds, building facilities and other data will be analyzed.

Jack Shahbazian, committee chairman and resident of Ran Ramon, said that his group has adjourned until September.

New Smith Store Will Open Today

Today will mark the opening of the new Smiths Oakland store at Broadway and 14th.

Harold B. Smith, president, said yesterday "that this newest Smiths store will be one of the truly outstanding store in America." Smith noted that the firm has been in business continuously in Oakland since 1886.

"After lengthy consideration, we concluded three years ago that this location at Broadway and 14th is the most ideal we could select for the convenience of our customers," he said. "It's the most modern store of its type in America, and will be only a half block away from the 600-car parking garage of the Downtown Merchants Association."

Customers will find shopping in the new Smiths, Broadway and 14th streets a real pleasure since convenience for them was the keynote in planning, he said.

Bailey Named to Ass'n Executives

EBMUD Bond Issue Won't Affect Tax --- McFarland

An adequate supply of water for the growing population of northern California is the joint responsibility of the water suppliers and the communities they serve. John W. McFarland, general manager of the East Bay Municipal Utility District, said recently.

He spoke in reference to the June 3 elections, when voters will decide upon a $252 million bond issue which will finance the "Water Development Project for the East Bay area."

The project is to create needed facilities, including new dams on the Mokelumne River, a third Mokelumne aqueduct, a new terminal reservoir and expansion of filter plant capacity by enlarging two existing plants and building two new ones.

McFarland said, "We have been working on the job of increasing our water capacity for nearly a decade. And it will take another 10 years to carry out the resulting expansion program. But the challenge of building a bigger and better water system is not ours alone."

"The people whom we serve hold the answer, because they must authorize the financing for this tremendous step forward. Thus they share the responsibility for taking care of the water needs of more than a quarter of a million more thirsty mouths to be added to our growing family of consumers by 1967."

McFarland was the principal speaker on the Bay counties water problems committee program in Richmond. It was sponsored jointly by the Alameda and Contra Costa County supervisors.

The entire program was devoted to the EBMUD Water Development Program for East Bay area, which will be placed before Utility District voters as Proposition B on the June 3 primary election ballot.

McFarland added that the total cost of construction is $283,008,000. Of this amount, the Utility District expects to finance from revenue $31,000,000 of the total cost.

The balance, to be financed by the proposed bond issue, totals $252,000,000. He said that no increase in the EBMUD tax rate or water service rate is required because of the new bond issue. The net revenues heretofore used for new construction will be used instead to redeem the debt.

Taxpayers Favor 'No Salary Raise'

The County Taxpayers Association recently issued a statement supporting the County Board of Supervisors in its decision against general salary increases this year for county employees.

The position of the county compares favorably with "prevailing practices in the Bay Area Labor Market," the report stated.

It added, "The majority of 'bench mark' positions in Contra Costa County substantially meet or exceed salary and wage levels in private industry."

Dambacher Tops Education Group

At the last meeting for the school year of the Northern Section of California Association of Adult Education Administrators, Arthur D. Dambacher, Director of Acalanes Adult School was elected to head the organization as President for the coming year.

The office of Vice President will be held by Price Webb, Director of Adult Education for San Jose. The office of Secretary Treasurer is held by Dr. Edward Hurlbut, Director Adult Education, Pacific Grove.

Dambacher has been an employee of the Acalanes High School District since 1949 and has headed the local program since 1953.

Recall when You only had To keep up with the Jones?

By Pat Deisenroth

Everytime I watch a television family rollicking around on my 17-inch TV screen, I start to bite my fingernails.

I am beginning to wonder if the Ozie Nelsons and Jim Andersons are really typical of the average, normal American family.

I DON'T KNOW. Not being a peeping Tom, I don't get intimate glimpses into the households of my friends and neighbors and I don't know if the Nelson family is typical or not, but if that family is normal, ours certainly isn't.

I have as much in common with the average TV housewife as I have with Mammie Eisenhower. First of all I can't see how she manages to have her house in tiptop shape by early morning and be dressed as a fashion plate model.

She's all ruffles and starch and I have just hair—she has a coiffure. She doesn't go to bed in pjs. curls, either. I know this for a fact, as I have seen her from first hand observations. I've seen her in bed.

After spending all day at PTA meetings or out with the gals she comes home with the rest of the family and when they all sit down for the evening she serves them roast beef and fancy home made pie.

IN ALL THE time that we have been watching the average American family I have never seen them eating the kind of desserts served in my home—canned peaches, puddings and baked apples. All they ever eat are the fancy kind of desserts that we reserve just for company.

Housecleaning on TV isn't like the housecleaning done in my home. They can whisk through the house which was spotless in the first place with a flick of the dust rag.

They just haven't seen my house, toys, sand and special treasures which I thought went to make our house normal.

When we are through eating, we have dishes, dirty pots and pans all over, but not the AVERAGE TV family for they have none. I have come to the conclusion that they must use paper plates and then throw them out when the meal is through.

THE OTHER TYPE of family makes a jolly lark of dishwashing. They prattle gaily on how easy it is with their wonderful miracle detergent, and Father runs off a laboratory test to prove that there are no harmful alkalis toadden his wife's pretty hands.

Everybody smiles all the time. It isn't like that at our house. Our dirty dishes are really dirty—driegg and fried potatoes stuck like granite to the frying pan. My husband has never once examined my hands for detergent burn.

IF THE CHILDREN on television are normal, my offspring need psychiatric aid.

Lucy, for instance, We have a baby about the same age, and I notice that they don't have to put all the bric-a-brac in their house on the mantel, out of the baby's reach. What's more their house isn't ankle-deep in tinker toys, wooden beads and dirty woolly animals.

Their baby spends about 20 hours a day in his crib, but our baby is all over the place all the time.

OLDER TELEVISION children, when they aren't helping Mommy with the housework, have problems. But their problems get solved, usually through the wise, understanding, guidance of their parents. Our children's problems hang around until they're worn out or outgrown. Or until we're so used to them that we don't notice them anymore. My husband and I don't seem to have the knack for parenthood that Jim and Margaret Anderson have.

Every time I compare our family with a typical TV family, I become depressed.

When my children get their toothbrushes mixed up, I realize that the Anderson children would not do a thing like that. My husband kicks all the covers out at the foot of the bed, but Ozzie sleeps so quietly that you'd hardly know his bed has been slept in.

LUCY ARNEZ has all her housework done by 10 a.m. and I don't even have the beds made. I have come to the conclusion that things were a lot easier back in the old pre-TV days when you merely had to keep up with the Smith's.

Troop 392

To honor their mothers for Mother's Day, the second grade Brownies—Troop 392—of Springhill School, planned and held a tea recently at the home of their leader, Mrs. Vernon Jensen.

Beforehand the girls had made the invitations and decorated the cookies to be served in the garden. Following the refreshments the program consisted of a poem read by Leilani Kelsey, a story told by Megan McDowell, songs sung by Susan Jensen and Kathryn Records, while Pamela Ross did hula.

Hostesses serving were: Susan Chance, Dana Howland, Jeanne Krempner, Carie Strela, Sharon Gillham.

Mrs. Leo Krempner was introduced as the new leader for next year.

Duffel, Dodge Start Largest Lafayette Apt.

Lafayette's largest apartment development, 45 modern, garden-type units, were started at 3713 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, this week.

Orinda businessmen Joe Duffel and George Dodge, will own the development, which was designed by James Rector Lucas, Orinda Architect.

Lucas stated, "The design of this project is based upon a concept of giving more individuality, or private freedom to apartment dwellers. Each unit will have a private balcony and separate entry. The conditions of the existing site have been used to create a garden atmosphere which is so much in keeping with our suburbia."

There are two buildings in the development, one with 12 units and the other with 33. Each building is two story, frame construction.

The units have been placed on the lot for maximum western exposure which is a part of the property.

The development will include a 26 x 40 heated pool and a large landscaped area along the bank of the Creek among the redwood trees.

The apartment development will be situated on a 14-acre site and will be surrounded by trees of up to 100 feet in height, according to the developers.

Total cost of the project will be near $500,000, according to the developers.

Enrichment Program Set At Springhill

This past week parents of Springhill school students were recipients of announcements of the school's proposed summer enrichment program. Sponsored by the Springhill P.T.A., this opportunity for students to pursue special subjects will include classes in typing, conversational Spanish, extended reading and creative writing, and science and nature study.

All courses except typing will be offered for any Springhill pupil who will have completed third grade or above by this summer. Typing will be open to those who have completed fourth grade or above. The program will run at Springhill school for six weeks beginning June 23 and ending August.

Children who wish to take typing will supply their own typewriters. This class will run three days a week and will be taught by Mrs. Marilyn Oldham.

Mrs. Leonard Ford will present the course in conversational Spanish. Mrs. Ford has lived in Peru and Mexico City and has taught in the Acalanes Adult Education Center. She has also taught Spanish on an experimental basis at Montecito and Burton schools.

The class in extended reading and creative writing will be designed to stimulate good reading for pleasure, to teach the child how to judge and choose books and how to find source material through knowledge of library techniques. Mrs. Sue Stephens, for many years a children's librarian in Oakland, will be the teacher.

The science and nature study course will be tied in with the Junior Museum program. In addition to two weekly sessions at Springhill, this class will also include a workshop in Walnut Creek at the Jr. Museum headquarters.

The committee sponsored by the P.T.A. to work out the enrichment program chose the subjects on the basis of questionnaires recently sent to all parents in the Lafayette school district.

Financial support for the program will be supplied by the fees charged for each course.

Classes will be limited to the first twenty who sign up for each class.

Questions concerning the program may be answered by contacting any one of the committee members—Mrs. Bill Bonowick, AT 4-4059, Mrs. Gerald Burger, YE 4-6281, Mrs. David Stewart, YE 5-5367 and Mrs. William Fisher, YE 4-5129.

Legion Sponsors Girls' Staters

Lafayette Unit American Legion Auxiliary will sponsor two girls to attend Girls' State to be held at the U. C. campus at Davis from June 23 to July 1.

This is a yearly affair and the high school students are chosen because of personality and high scholastic record. Girls from here are Joan Carolyn Baker from Acalanes and Sheryl Studley from Miramonte.

Lafayette Womens Club Plans Trip

The Garden Section of the Lafayette Women's Club boarded a chartered bus at the Veteran's Building Tuesday for a tour of the Arboretum and the Japanese Tea Garden in Golden Gates Park, San Francisco.

Section members had planned an earlier trip but were rained out.

A Patio Bridge Party was held April 29 at the Veteran's Building under the direction of Mrs. Raymond Parshall and her committee.

Novel table prizes in the form of Hurricane Lamps added to the theme. Tasty Linza Torte was served as dessert, along with coffee and tea.

Reservations were made through Mrs. B. D. Blackwood, Mrs. W. B. Ellis and Mrs. Neil Cornwell. The colorful tickets were made by Arts and Crafts chairman Miss Margaret Miller. Mrs. Gilbert Myers handled refreshments; Mrs. Albert Anacleto, phoned members to remind them of the date; Mrs. John Bauer arranged the table setting; Mrs. Wallace Connors worked on the prizes; Mrs. R. E. Stroube was in charge of the lovely decorations; and Publicity was handled by Mrs. Carson White.

Everything from Bridge to Whist was played that afternoon. President Mrs. Dwight C. Birch and Book Chairman Mrs. Harry Sims are busy with plans for the Book Brunch at 10:30 a.m. May 27 in the Veteran's Building.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Rally 'round the flag boys!

FLAAASH! Hip, Hips Hooray! The Orinda Assoc. will sponsor THE SHOW, a musical & mimical spoof of Suburbia, NEXT Spring! Here is an all-embracing community endeavor w/EVERYONE getting into the Act, Action or Audience! If you have time, talent or a little ham or hand to lend, let Jean & Joe Downs KNOW it. They'll 'chairman' and will welcome a card from you—just address it—"The Downses, Orinda."

IN CASE YOU'RE CURIOUS . . . When Gov. Knight spoke in Orinda last wk. en rite, to Martinez, His Lady sat pretty & smiling nrbly, and dressed NOT in a chemise, my dear, but a simple suit of grey, a pink & black off-the-face bonnet on her pretty head, and in gracious manner, accepted w/a little speech, a gift presented by Rene Kennedy, Rep. Women's pres.

If you're out on the Golf Tourney today seeking out The Groaner amidst the golf celebs, you'd better settle for John Raitt. Mr. Crosby regrets he's unable to play today—"any other day this wk. but NOT today." Oh Well! . . . There's always Billy Graham, "Tarzan" Weismuller or Orinda's own Joe Downs who COULD double for Howard Duff.

TRY IF YOU MUST . . . The latest craze w/the kids, sliding down the slippery dry slopes on a cardboard carrier. Whee, but we warn you! Like SOME mothers we know who joined the fun, you just might find yourself ruined for wks, black & blue-hoo all OVER! That enterprising young blonde YoYo Champ, Mary Ann Ruedrich, 11 yr. old dght. of the Walt Ruedrichs, is sporting a Beaut of a Black-Eye! Poor Darling ran right into a baseball bat—or vice-versa! THIS being the Season, you might enjoy hearing that some of our mothers (Republican) have changed that age-old children's game (just temporarily) to "Pin The Tail On The Elephant."

Birds of a feather flock together

YES, VIRGINIA, There ARE peacocks in Orinda. We haven't seen one yet, but everyone else has reported the gorgeous creature around. Fred & Estelle Johnson were tooting down El Toyonal en rite, to the Ernest Chiltons for dinner when they came to a quick stop, the car in front of them JAMMING on the breaks. And no wonder! A marvelous male peacock preening its feathers was strutting across the road. A few days later, Estelle picked up the Friberg boy & his friends to give them a ride home & mentioned that she had actually seen a peacock in the area. Boys didn't bat an eyelash but very blase & ho-humish, added "Yeh . . . we see him all the time."

Quite a different effect on Lefty Kilpatrick, however. The Lady Sculptress, high in her house on Dos Osos, was being domestic at the drab job of bkfst. dishes when the regal peacock pirouetted across her lawn. Couldn't believe her eyes, that Lefty, and dropped the dishes, grabbed a salt shaker and stole forth to within a few ft. of the bird before it flew up & off like a helicopter.

Lefty learned via Vet Dr. Boevers that the Bolenders of Bear Creek Rd. had been given some of the peacocks from those raised by the Ohls of Lafayette when neighbors complained of the noisy ruckus every spring during Mating Season. Apparently THIS one pined for his Lady Love, strayed from the Bolenders in search of same, but is now headed instead, for the ostrich on the Tilden Park Merry-Go-Round. The Boenders, who've had many calls re: the bird during the past yr., assured Lefty that peacocks are quite self-sufficient, live off the land, scare the dogs to death and roost safely in trees at night.

OVERHEARD AT THE TANAGERS PARTY . . . "I've never before lived in such a wonderful place I haven't had the time to enjoy."

A SPECTACULAR & SWEEPING VIEW of Orinda, the backdrop for the Frank Walker's "Backyard Beautiful" at their home on Van Ripper Lane where Tanagers & guests partied SAT. night for the Therapy Center. Parking was at a premium. George Eberhart, who had only to cross the street, came down his long empty & carless driveway on foot to be greeted by a weary walker (who had parked blocks away) w/"Say, George, why don't YOU do it—put up some "Parking $5.00" signs—looks like Berkeley on Big Game Day."

Dixieland guidepost. . .

Recent newcomers to that Hollow, Lois & Owen Owens who live just around the block from the Walkers, got into their car, drove to party, no place to park, so drove around the opp. corner to park practically in back of their own house. And there was no need to ask WHERE the party was. You had only to follow the blatant blare of a Dixieland Quartet and you were there.

PARTY PEOPLE . . . Hostess Georgia Walker sharing the ticket-table greetings w/member Maxine Myers. Pat Dildine wearing crystal earrings which on closer inspection, turned out to be miniature champagne glasses. The Dick Naismiths in group, Vi wearing a white deep-cuffed coat, patterned pumps to match a print frock. IN THE UPPER GARDEN, w/barely standing room space on the spacious lawn, Percy & Ada Francis Dawson, Melba Bray, tanned from poolside toddler-watching, the Hal Caldwell's overlooking the throng from the veranda where the Music Men played.

SAME PLACE, SAME PARTY . . . Lucile & Alex Morris being congratulated on their new "Polka Dot" soda shop venture in the Village . . . Faye Smith in a pretty lilac-splashed dress she kiddingly calls her "Reader's Digest" number since the May cover came out similarly splashed. Around the pool, the Charles Gibbs, Jean Henderson, Allie & Lloyd Rasmussen, Nan & Tom Elmore, June & Hank Spaatz carrying to the car an electric casserole they'd won . . . A lime-sherbert sheath on Gladys Hamber, floral pumps for Dorothy Reilly, Jean Downs. Quite a FEW Chemises and a few brave bare shoulders . . . The sudden wind blowing up and coats being called for. The Arthur Lund-blads in a large crowd, THEY hosting a late dinner party for some forty guests.

Does anyone 'show' at 77

The main onrush of arrivals between 6:30 & 7 altho' invites read 4-7 . . . (Does anyone, we wonder, ever show at 4—or even 5?) Betty Orem, new member, w/Gen Cantrill . . . Member Emerald Smith in tiered beige lace helping Bert Wayne who vainly called ticket numbers over the din of the party's peak pitch. John & Barbara Ozeroff, new to Via Floreado, being introduced . . . The Matt Hammonds, Jim Chappes among those going on to the Linden Branch party at the Vic Grabers on Rheem Blvd.

THE YOUNGER SET WAS SOOOO SOPHISTICATED & beautiful in their "Cinderella Ball" gowns at last wks' Jr. Prom at Miramonte. But what did the young ladies choose to do? Between dances, they tried on each others new shoes! Any glass slippers turn up in Lost & Found?

TONIGHT COUNTRY-SIDE of the tunnel Jr. Leaguers will party, no-host, at the Pierce Milton's Happy Valley diggins w/swimming on the agenda if the wind doesn't stir up a Brrr! Sis Larkin & Jackie O'Connor will co-chair the fun evening and among those planning to be there—Jean & Phil Angell, Norm & Liz Cunningham, Caroline & Harold Hayre, Barbara & George Kruse, Babbie & Jim Morris. More at the Miltons will be Jan & Ed Sterling, the Rich Stampeys who've just come back from conventioning in Canada, the Bake Calders, Sue & Jack Beckett, Janet & Harold Frederick, the Bill Platts, Bob Angells. PLAY DAY for Leaguers, honoring the new Provisionals, is Jan. 10 at the Greenwoods in Moraga.

Preceding tomorrow nite's annual & traditional Orinda Nursery School Dinner dance at Diablo, a score of parties planned beforehand. Holly & Tom Fitch of Vista Del Moraga will entice a group over early for aperitifs at their Vista Del Moraga domain—the guest list to include Stan Johnsons, Jack McCarens, Gale DeMartins, Jack & Bev Campbell, Dana & Fran Leavitt.

Planning to dine & dance together, another large crew will cocktail early at the Robert Haafs home on La Campagna. Sam & Joan Mason will come in from WC w/Nancy & Al Rubey of Diablo to join Orindans Pete & Indy Stark, Earl & Betty Winkler, Dick & Jane Teeter, Hugh & Markie Rieger. Guests at the Jerry Pixleys will get a gorgeous view w/their Gibsons & here will be the Ray Hudacheks, Phyllis & Dick McAdams, Jean & Jim Glenn dropping in beforehand. Down on Canon Dr. Charles & Leona will welcome Mel & Gertrude Arighi, Don & Verla Krotz, Marge & George Cook.

MORE NAMES . . . At the Hidden Valley home of the Glenn Heltnes, another pre-dinner convale will incl. the Kon Mirovs, Brooks Gardner, Fran Watsons, Ralph Withs, Ken & Dottie Holland, the Howard Hoyts, Tom & Sis Curtis, Bill & Liz Ingram. And the Oliver Gardiniers will join forces w/Howard & Frances Jewell at still another early rendezvousing.

P.S.—Park Pool was closed last Mon. acct. Peggy Kirby has the measles. She's Lifeguard!

Gaels' Spring Record Bleak; 7 Wins; 44 Loses

Five spring sport squads on the Moraga campus piled up a combined 7-44 record this year, according to Bob Hagler, director of minor sports at St. Mary's College.

The picture wasn't wholly black as two Gael squads picked up volunteer coaches in mid-season and showed improvement in their last contests.

Both the rugby and swimming squads were formed by student initiative and just recently picked up volunteer mentors.

The Phoenix, St. Mary's baseball team, finished its season May 14 against San Jose. The Gaels have a 1-15 all-over record and a perfect 0-7 WCAC mark to qualify them for league cellarship.

Heavy spring rain and the lack of depth and experience were the things that floored the chances of what was a promising, if green Moraga nine, according to coach Bob Hagler.

Thanks to light losses from graduation, Gael sportsmen are preparing for next year with prospects of vengeance in view.

Most successful was the St. Mary's rugby fifteen who ran up a 3-4-2 record, winning their last two matches against the Olympic Club and the Palo Alto Ramblers after finding ex-rugger Art Robeson as a tutor.

The Gael swim team picked up its first win in its two year existence, downing the California Maritime Academy last week 45-10 to end a 1-14 season.

Ron Noakes, Pleasant Hill AAU moderator was pressed into duty as a coach in mid-season after coming to the College pool to exercise a swimming prospect.

Still under the tutelage of student captain Bob O'Neill, the Gael golf varsity's record stood at 1-8 as they left for Los Angeles and the conference golf tourney.

They have already dropped matches to USC Santa Clara and COP in league tilts.

Another coachless group reformed this year after a two-year layoff was the St. Mary's tennis squad under captain Nick Mues. The frosh-soph dominated squad will accompany the golfers to the southland. In league matches, the racketmen split a pair with USC to date in a 1-3 season.

Women's Club Sponsors Drive For Inhalator

"Orinda must have another resuscitator" said Fire Marshal Koch at one of several neighborhood coffee parties given by members of the Orinda Woman's Club to raise funds for the Fire Department's resuscitator.

Working in conjunction with the Orinda Jr. Chamber of Commerce and the Orinda Fire Department, the Orinda Woman's Club will be at the Village and Crossroads shopping centers today and tomorrow to accept donations. Posters painted by Miramonte's Art Classes have been placed in several local stores to call attention to the need for a resuscitator with swimming season starting now.

The Orinda Woman's Club is also sponsoring a performance of the Dramateurs at the Berkeley Little Theatre. Tickets for any performance, May 23-24 and May 30-31 may be purchased from Ways and Means chairman, Mrs. Edmund Wilford, CL 4-8886.

The Fire Department will display a resuscitator at the Crossroads today and tomorrow and Fire Marshal Koch has spoken at the coffee given this week explaining why another resuscitator is needed.

The Orinda Jr. Chamber of Commerce will hold its resuscitator drive June 1-15.

Donations may be sent to the Orinda Woman's Club treasurer, Mrs. John Barkley, 6 Irving Court, Orinda.

Susanne Lindsey Will See Europe

Miramonte High School sophomore, Susanne Lindsey, was one of the 23 high school students picked recently from the United States and Alaska to represent the Junior Red Cross in Europe this summer.

Miss Lindsey has been actively engaged in Junior Red Cross work since the beginning of her high school career. At present, she is working on the Inter-school Secondary Council that encompasses Alacalanes, Miramonte, Las Lomas, Pleasant Hill and San Ramon High Schools under the advisory of Mrs. E. M. Jacobson, local Red Cross leader.

During the summer of 1957, Suzanne attended Junior Red Cross training camp. Besides this, Suzanne has helped with Christmas and general recreational activities at the Parks and Oak Knoll hospitals.

On their way to Europe, the group will stop at Washington, D. C., to meet General Gunther and possibly President Eisenhower. The two-month trip will cover France, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and Spain. Much of Suzanne's time will be divided between International Training Camp in France and Geneva, Switzerland, where representatives from all countries will meet to discuss mutual problems.

"I was very surprised at being chosen," exclaimed Miss Lindsey. "I thought that, perhaps, there were one or two others that may have been picked. I consider it a wonderful opportunity, and I'm really looking forward to it. It's only a month away!"

Your Vote May Keep Pure Water

Have you ever stopped to consider the tremendous amount of engineering that lies behind each glass of East Bay Municipal Utility District water that you drink?

Have you considered the amount of planning necessary to insure that your excellent water continues to flow through the pipes?

Generally speaking, these are facts that we take for granted. Hardly anyone stops to think, as he turns the tap, where the water comes from.

The answer, of course, is that you are drinking good, pure, snow water from The Sierra, which has been purified and transmitted from lakes high in the mountains.

Just bringing this water from its mountain sources to your own series of household taps is a real engineering miracle.

It requires dams, aqueducts, terminal reservoirs, filter plants, distribution reservoirs, pumping plants, distribution mains and a host of service facilities.

Facts and figures are often dry, but when they deal with water, which is an extremely controversial subject in California at this time, they are far from "dry."

Here are some pertinent figures, which should help us to a better understanding of the EBMUD situation.

The original water rights for the district permitted us 200 million gallons daily. This was augmented in 1956 by a new permit from the state for an additional 125 million gallons daily, nearly double the original figure.

Proposed plans for the Water Development Project for the East Bay Area will include facilities to impound this additional flow now available to EBMUD.

At the present time, Mokelumne River storage capacity is 68 billion gallons. Expansion will provide for storage of 144 billion gallons. This will be accomplished by construction of two new reservoirs.

How does the water get here?

THE FIRST AQUEDUCT linking Pardee reservoir with the East Bay was completed in 1929. A second aqueduct, which more than doubled the original capacity, was placed in service in 1949. The present capacity of these two aqueducts combined is 175 million gallons per day.

A third aqueduct is proposed which, with the present facilities, will be capable of transporting all the available 325 million gallon Mokelumne water supply daily to the Bay Area.

What do we do with the water when it gets here?

It must be stored, and this requires the construction of another terminal reservoir, which with the existing terminal reservoirs, serves the function of maintaining a 90-day safe reserve supply of water within the service area, plus storing water from a wet year to a dry year.

More water, of course, means more treatment and distribution facilities.

All of this means only one thing. The East Bay Municipal Utility District is going to have to spend some money—lots of it, as a matter of fact.

Proposition B on the June 3 primary ballot will ask us to approve a $252 million bond issue to be called over the next 10 years, as needed, to construct the facilities detailed above.

This is a lot of money, but good water for our expanding area is of vital importance. If we don't use the water we've got, somebody else is going to get it, and we cannot permit that to happen.

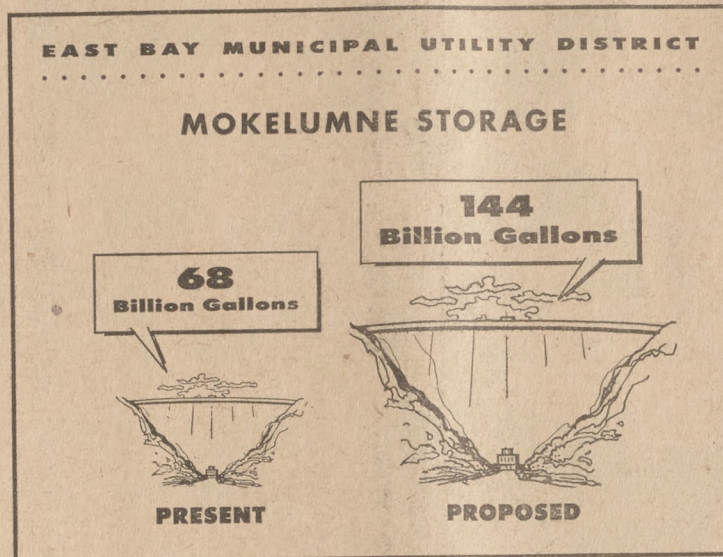

Furthermore, the nicest thing about it is that passage of the bond issue will not raise EBMUD water rates, which are quite reasonable. In addition, the tax rate is not expected to be increased because of the bond issue.

This is not the kind of program which can be done "piecemeal." It is a long-term project which must be built as a unit.

It appears to be well-engineered and well planned, and it seems to us that there is little choice.

We urge all voters to approve this bond issue on June 3. It will appear as Proposition B on your ballot and requires a two-thirds "yes" vote for passage.

Let's protect the water we've got and build for the growth of our area. Vote YES on Proposition B Tuesday, June 3.

THE CHIEF SOURCE of supply for water served to East Bay Municipal Utility District residents is the Mokelumne River, formed from the melting snows of the Sierra Nevada. The Water Development Project for East Bay Area, Proposition B on the June 3 primary election ballot, will allow use of additional Mokelumne River water available to EBMUD through construction of new dams on the Mokelumne as indicated by this chart.

There Are Just Too Darn Many El Monte's Around

By PAT PENDING

You don't need a car! You can still run into the darndest things!

I was getting gassed up (my Plymouth, of course) in a Mobil station on Clayton Road. A dust-stained station wagon bearing a Pennsylvania license pulled in.

THE DRIVER GOT OUT WITH A ROAD map in his hand. He asked the attendant how to get to a certain street. While the attendant tried to find the street, the traveler confided to me that he had driven some 700 miles almost non-stop and was so happy to have reached El Monte.

Well, the attendant couldn't find the street on the Concord map for a very excellent reason. The stranger (who had come west to visit relatives) had made a slight miscalculation.

His destination was El Monte all right—in SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

The man was real burned because his road map had TWO El Montes listed—ours in the larger print.

The Sun Recommends...

In the June 3 primary election, only two non-partisan offices will be decided, since two candidates are running for each office. In November The Sun will make recommendations on the other county offices that will be decided in the general election. The following are recommended for your consideration:

County District Attorney ..... John Nejedly
Superior Court Judge, Dept. 6 ..... Tom Fraga, incumbent
Proposition B — EBMUD Water Bonds ..... Yes

Acalanes Board Decides 3.7 Increase is Enough

Acalanes High School District trustees have denied teacher requests for salary increases and directed cutbacks totaling $41,750, in services for pupils.

In turning down the teachers' request for a salary adjustment "The board voted unanimously to make no change in the existing teachers' salary schedule, noting that the teachers will receive an automatic built-in 3.7 per cent increase on the average on the present schedule, and that Acalanes salaries compare favorably with those paid in other districts."

In cuts attributed to the tax limit defeat in February, did the following:

1. ORDERED a transportation cutback in bus service that will eliminate 75 per cent of the present bus stops. High school pupils will walk up to two miles to bus stops. The cutback in bus service saves the district $18,000.

2. Directed that cafeteria service at Miramonte, Las Lomas and Acalanes High Schools be self-supporting for an estimated savings to the district of $2,500.
3. Stipulated that three less teachers be hired than had been planned earlier. The cutback in teachers (one less per school) shaves expenditures $16,000.

4. Approved a cutback in nursing service with one less nurse to work for the district at a budget retention of $5,200.

5. ALTHOUGH the Acalanes Adult program operates without assistance from the district, trustees authorized an increase from $1.50 registration fee and $1 each additional quarter, to $2 each quarter, to insure that the adult program remains self-sufficient and continues as no burden to local taxpayers.

Trustees said that cutbacks in service and the regular education program for 1959-60 would be even more acute if additional income is not forthcoming to enable the district to meet "continuous enrollment growth requirements."

Trustees also announced the appointment of William Ross as principal of the new Tice Valley high school to be completed in 1959. Ross, who lives at 161 Parkmead Court, Walnut Creek, is the father of two children, and a lieutenant commander in the U. S. Naval Reserve.

He has been with the Acalanes district since 1948 as a teacher, counselor, and head counselor, and is now dean of boys at Miramonte High in Orinda.

Trustees also moved to change the requirements for college preparatory students in the district, in that such students must now take a full four years of English.

Letters to The Editor

THANK YOU
Dear Editor

At the last regular meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners of the Orinda County Fire Protection District it was moved, seconded and passed unanimously that we thank Mrs. Dan D. Lucas for the very fine complement she paid our organization in her letter to you which was in the April 11, 1958 issue of the Orinda Sun.

The Commissioners, the Chief, his staff and I are deeply grateful for the appreciation Mrs. Lucas expressed in her letter to you. It is the intent of the Commissioners, through the Chief and his staff to render the best possible service in any emergency that may confront the fire district. It is reassuring to know that such efforts on the part of the fire district are recognized by those served by the fire district.

MANUFACTURING

Dear Editor,

On May 13 at the County Planning Commission meeting in Martinez, the citizen taxpayers received the full treatment from that August Body.

Irrespective of the tremendous opposition of the people in the Burton and Glenside districts of Lafayette over a proposed shopping center in that area, and of the people of Moraga over increased acreage to be used for controlled manufacturing requested by Utah Construction Co., above and beyond that allotted by the "General Plan for the Moraga area," the commission totally disregarded the wishes of the many for the benefit of the few in granting the carpet baggers from Utah a Carte Blanche.

It would appear that the workings of this body, while unlike those of behind the Iron Curtain where the people cannot plead in their own behalf, pay absolutely no attention to the case presented by the majority and in turn favor the minority as represented by the power interests, namely Utah Construction Company.

I realize that the planning staff (Not to be confused with the commissioners) has the interest of the county at heart, and it is a shame that the one group tends to tear down what the other is working for.

In view of your paper's crusade for the cleaning up of certain county offices, it might be interesting to look into this situation as the odor emanating from it is far from pleasant.

JACK WINTHER, Moraga.

Under The Sun

Time Is Fast Approaching For You To Do Your Duty

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Tuesday morning wife Eleanore and I reminded each other to vote in the school trustee election.

We hadn't discussed for whom we'd vote. In fact, I had not firmly decided, although I had the candidates narrowed down. I gave the matter further consideration (sounds stuffy, eh?) and then decided.

How many of us wait until almost the final hour to decide? I imagine most voters make their final selections in the last week. Well, folks, this is about the final hour. A week from Tuesday is the Primary Election. For whom are you going to vote?

Come to our party...

Perhaps it will help to see the candidate in person. The Sun invites you to its traditional Candidates' Night next Wednesday evening at the Acalanes High School Gym. Candidates for every local, county, assembly and congressional race will be present, except Superintendent of Schools. (They were presented at a Sun Candidates' Night May 14.) See first section for details of Wednesday's meeting.

I believe this is the only election rally in the entire county that will present every race. It will be a long program, but you'll find it worthwhile. It's amazing how much you can learn about a candidate by seeing and hearing him in person.

A word of warning: the program will start promptly.

Here are some political notes from the little asbestos file: In answer to several inquiries, The Sun will recommend candidates in the primary election for only those offices that will be filled in the primary. Other recommendations will be presented for the November election.

The political parade arrives

Last week was Political Week at the Sun office. Democrat Alan Cranston, candidate for California controller, chatted for awhile. He was accompanied by Bill McKee. Mr. Cranston, a big wheel in the Democrat party, presented some interesting ideas on the importance of the office and how it can be improved.

A week ago Thursday Governor Knight's party dropped in. This included Don Doyle, Don Bonar, the governor's secretaries and bodyguard—and most important, the most personable and lovely Mrs. Knight.

Let's put politics aside for a moment in regards to Knight's campaign for U. S. Senate. Okay?

I have never seen "two people" in public office who have such wonderful personalities as Mr. and Mrs. Knight. Their sincere interest in "people" amazes me. The governor really likes people!!

A perfect team...

He likes to talk with people. He is interested in what they are doing. And what I say about the Governor is completely applicable to Mrs. Knight.

I am certain their schedule called for five minutes at The Sun plant. But they were here at least 25 minutes and left only because their aides pulled them out. They talked to everyone in the office and plant—not as office seekers, but as two friendly people. They were interested in the pictures, the wall charts and the equipment in the shop.

Their congenial spirit is contagious. You just feel good after talking to this charming couple.

Meet Congressman Hillings

After they left, another political caravan arrived. Ted Barcelona introduced Congressman Pat Hillings, a Republican candidate for attorney general of California. Hillings is from Southern California. When Dick Nixon won his senate seat, Pat Hillings succeeded him in the House of Representatives from the district.

We chatted for a few minutes and then the caravan sped away. On the GOP slate, Hillings opposes Cap Weinberger for attorney general. Assemblyman Weinberger is from San Francisco and is an outstanding young man. He was named "California's Most Able Legislator" by the Sacramento press delegation. He is brilliant, and has all the qualifications for attorney general. He would be excellent. Remember, Weinberger put through the state liquor reform laws several years ago.

He has one major drawback—he is from San Francisco and the heavy vote is controlled by southern California. On this basis, observers predict that Hillings has the edge. I will vote for Weinberger.

Whats the latest dope?

The grapevine: Observers were predicting that Harry Brown and Concord Police Chief Ron Orin would qualify in the primary but it now looks like Sheriff Sergeant Walt Young may nose out Orin. For some reason, Orin doesn't seem to be campaigning very hard.

The Nejedly race for district attorney is gaining more and more steam. Incumbent Francis Collins still has an edge but it is narrowing. Several teachers have sent me letters they received from Collins—on District Attorney letterhead and envelope. I am certain, however, that Collins is too smart to use official county stationery. He must have had them printed.

Contrary to county civil service laws, some deputy district attorneys are actively campaigning for Collins. I was told they picked up all of Nejedly's pamphlets at a recent candidates' night.

The Sun has not had an acceptance yet from Collins for the Candidates' Night! I personally will assure him that he will be accorded every courtesy and consideration.

The race against Taylor

In supervisory district 3, Walnut Creek's Bill McIntosh is gaining ground. Incumbent Ray Taylor is still first but it's a long time until November. McIntosh has experience, integrity and will devote full time to the job.

The question is who will qualify in addition to Taylor—McIntosh or Concord city councilman Tom Coll? Tom is a nice guy; a young, energetic attorney. It all depends if he can carry the big Concord area vote.

Pleasant Hill could be the key. The fourth candidate is Pleasant Hill's Bill Gohene, a county employee. I don't think Bill can possibly do better than fourth and won't carry Pleasant Hill. Bill is personable but not a strong candidate.

McIntosh needs more support, more money, a harder-hitting campaign. With these he could challenge Taylor to a hot race. And that is all for today.

Beautiful Weather, Art Make Fine Combination

Residents of Central Contra Costa County are blessed with two fine things—specifically, beautiful weather and a talent for the appreciation of the cultural values of life.

Nobody, of course, can do anything about the weather, but at this time of year it is almost universally mild and pleasant.

And lots and lots of people are doing something about the cultural aspects of our area.

We are thinking specifically of the Diablo Pageant of Arts which holds forth in Walnut Creek tomorrow through May 31. There will be something for everybody, from the youngest to the oldest, including art-in-action shows which the children just love.

This will include potters making "pots," painters, jewelry workers, and other fascinating bits of the art world brought to life.

This is a fascinating show which has become famous throughout California, and the people who have put in hours and hours to bring it to a reality are to be congratulated. They deserve the thanks of each of us.

This is truly an area-wide affair, too, because it embraces artists from each of our communities. Paintings and works of art from Orinda, Lafayette, Pleasant Hill, Alamo, Danville and other points, as well as Walnut Creek, will be on display throughout the city all next week.

This kind of pageant serves to underline the importance of the arts in our communities, and the interest and talent that is devoted to the arts.

This interest and activity is providing a constant opportunity for each of us to take part in a fascinating avocation any time we wish. There are many, many groups, including children's symphonies, art, dance and literary groups, little theatre workshops and photography clubs.

The list is almost inexhaustible, and there is certainly something for each person who wants to take the trouble to find it.

Consider the Acalanes Community Concert Organization, for instance. It provides first-rate artists for our enjoyment right here at home, and why should we travel to the Big City for our entertainment when it is brought right to our doorstep?

Needless to say, this is an organization which deserves our support, and it is conducting its membership drive right now.

Yes, cultural activities abound in our beautiful communities, and although you may not feel that you have the talent to join any of the active groups, you certainly owe it to yourself and your family to take advantage of what they offer.

Why not make a family affair out of it and visit the Diablo Pageant of Arts tomorrow through May 31 in Walnut Creek. You won't be supporting our artists as much as you will be gaining something for yourself.

We recommend it, and we think you and members of your family will find it a highly satisfying experience.

Add to the FUN of living - while you...

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER • YE 4-3818

For thirteen years the industrious Walnut Branch of Children's Hospital has presented its "Festival of Flowers and Fashions."

Ladies from ALL over the bay area flock to this affair each year and there was no exception this time for the lovely Howard Gardens were overflowing—but comfortably so. The weather turned out to be the very best and I thought the decorations were especially attractive, thanks to the leadership of Mrs. Jack Turman.

In each garden the models stepped through large doorways which were framed with sprayed wire netting trimmed with enormous grouped blossoms. The centerpiece on each table was an artist's palette complete with brush and bright splashes of color — this design was published in the lovely individual cakes served with coffee during the afternoon.

And it was pretty as a picture

From this description you may have gathered, by now, that this year's theme was "Pretty as a Picture." There were many youngsters modeling and two who drew a large hand were Jane and Roberta Bataque who looked adorable in powder blue polished cotton outfits. Jane's was a pinafore over a white faggoted blouse—the skirt VERY full.

Roberta wore the same blouse with torreador trousers. Naturally, their mother, lovely Mrs. Norman Bataque, couldn't resist buying them—the outfits, that is.

Some of the outstanding models were the Mmes. Walton E. Kirk, Carter P. Schriber, Edgar P. Sawyer, Ronald G. Pallin, Daniel Ritter and Leighton T. DeMaeyer. Of course, they were ALL beautiful and so were the clothes. At one table were the Mmes. Stanley McCaffrey, Arnold Nelson, Edward Conally, Donald Johnson, William Clark, Ernest Bernard, Richard Macke, Harold Moller, Lloyd Moller and William Hall.

At another, the Mmes. Fritz Breuleux, Jhon Black, Charles P. Hart, Frank Fribley and Edward L. Hodge—all of Walnut Creek. Mrs. Hodge has lived here only two weeks, having moved from St. Louis, Mo.

A real summery luncheon

In her lovely colonial-type home in Orinda Kay (Mrs. Richard) Schoner entertained her fellow Sunday School teachers with luncheon last week. Halves of pineapples were heaped with the most luscious fruits and served with a TOO heavenly whip cream dressing — all accompanied by home made rolls and coffee followed by wedges of cheese cake.

Guests were Mabel Bowbeer, Rosemary Caldwell, Anne Lane, Fran Phillips, Esther Schimbor, Blanche Trimble, Evelyn Steding, Niki Williams, Wanda Westerman and Beverly Kesterloot. The above mentioned Niki Williams with her husband, George, mother, Mrs. I. H. Erickson and sons, Scott, Rick and Jackie had just returned from an extensive motor trip.

It all started with George's intent to attend a convention in Dallas, Texas. This led to a visit in Jackson, Miss., where Mrs. Erickson's brother lives with his family; another in Hattiesburg, Miss., with more relatives and a visit with cousins in Pearl River which Niki reported to be real down-south swamp land—lushly mysterious.

The Williams spent several days in New Orleans and wished they had several more for they loved it. They especially enjoyed the French Quarter. Other points of interest along the way were the "Piney Woods Country Life School" for underprivileged negroes, the Carlsbad Caverns and in Houston the San Jacinto Battle Grounds, the Alamo and the Battleship "Texas."

Birds of a feather are flocking . . .

Have you heard of the "Canaries and Crows"? This group has been formed by a number of inactive "Flickers" and their husbands who meet occasionally for social evenings. Of course, their interest still is with the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center. The last gathering was held at Lillian and Bill Palmer's home in Walnut Creek where a short business meeting was held preceding a buffet supper. About 26 members were present. Partners for the evening were chosen when tags pinned to each person's back were matched. The next vent will be a barbecue-swim party at Muriel Alexander's home.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Sullivan celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary. Hostesses for a large buffet dinner were Mrs. Lloyd Ghiglieri and her seven sisters—all Sullivan girls. Among the throng gathered at the Ghiglieri home were 14 grandchildren. Florence (Mrs. Paul) Moore has just returned from a three week's stay in Salt Lake City and Emerald (Mrs. Charles) Smith who dashed off (after having attended and helped with the Tananger party the night before) Sunday to Glendale to attend her aunt and uncle's 50th. wedding anniversary, returned Tuesday to prepare for a trip to San Diego with her husband.

Carolyn (Mrs. Andrew) Cathall was a busy one on Sunday as an advisor to the committee which "promoted" a luncheon at El Nido Rancho. The occasion—the 10th anniversary of the Kappa Epsilon Sorority.

Now about this Orinda party. . .

Now, about that Tananger party last Saturday evening. It was held at the oh! so lovely Frank Walker home in Sleepy Hollow, Orinda. A terrific Dixieland Jazz Band played from the Walker's sun deck which overlooked the terraced gardens. Members mingled among the crowds, gathered on both levels, offering succulent canapés. Spotted here and there chatting around the pool were Edith and Boynton Kaiser, Edith looking regal in a slim red gown, the

Coaches to Talk At Stanford Parents' Party

"Chuck" Taylor, assistant director of athletics at Stanford, and Jack Curtice, new football coach, will be guests of honor at the annual Stanford parents' party Sunday at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley.

Sponsored by the Stanford Mothers of the East Bay, the party is planned so that parents of present students and parents of entering students may become acquainted with each other and with the University's representatives. A social hour at 3 o'clock will precede the buffet supper at 4. Later in the afternoon Curtice and Taylor will discuss Stanford's sports program and, particularly, football.

Mrs. Ralph J. Young is president of the group, and co-chairmen of the party are Mrs. Peter J. Crosby, Jr. and Mrs. Joseph Rupley.

Among Contra Costa women working for the success of the party are Mrs. James A. Chambers, program chairman, Mrs. Thorvald Jacobsen, who heads hospitality committee, Mrs. Jack Pedder, and Mrs. Marshall Shapiro.

soft, cowl, off-shoulder neckline accented with a huge white rose; Lois and Owen Owens, Lois in a lime, linen chemise trimmed with a lime and white polka-dotted sash which was laced through the low, LOW waistline; Marge and Ernest Starkman, Marge petite and lovely in a princess-type, robin's egg blue, faille frock trimmed with appliqued Morning Gloriet; Sally and Bill Nero, Sally stunning in a white sheath with yellow and green printed trim and slippers to match and Merlon and Tom Howard, Merlon VERY sophisticated in black and white.

There were many dinner parties following this very successful affair. One was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Cary. Their guests were Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Chappel and the Messrs. and Mmes. Robert Bettencourt, Raymond Luthy, David Brain, John Hughes and William Cooks. Another was given by Dr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Lundblad (Dorothy was a "doll" in a crisp, full, pink and white organdie—chosen for her by Art for mother's day. See! A man's taste? No chemise!) This party honored Bea and Art Commerford who are spending a month in the East.

After a sumptuous buffet supper the guests danced in the Lundblad's "Garden Room." Much talk at the Tananger party about member, Lucille Morris, who, with her husband (naturally) have opened a brand new creamery restaurant near Orinda Village. Cute name—"The Polka Dot" and, already it's THE place to go—especially for the younger set.

The members of the Cardinal Unit gathered with their husbands Saturday night at the Herb Phillips home in Lafayette preceding dinner en masse, at the Casa Orinda.

This was an informal and FUN affair where cotton dresses and sports shirts were the mode — and how the men did love that!

Dons Place 8 in North Coast Meet

By ERWIN MATTSON

Trackmen hold the North Coast Final Meet at Fremont High of Sunnyvale today and Acalanes will be upholding the local track prestige with eight qualifiers.

They hardly figure to win this one, but could well place up among the leaders.

Dixon Farmer of Miramonte could well put them well up in the standings also with his one-man performance in the low hurdles, broad jump and 440.

One thing certain he will qualify for the State meet at Los Angeles next Saturday.

Las Lomas appears well on its way to the baseball title and next week winds it all up for the 1958 season as far as local prep sports are concerned.

Schedule for the week is as follows:

TODAY
North Coast final in track at Fremont of Sunnyvale.

TUESDAY
Tennis and Baseball
Pacifica at Antioch, Pittsburg at Acalanes, Las Lomas at Mt. Diablo, Miramonte at Mt. Diablo.

THURSDAY
Baseball and Tennis
Pleasant Hill at Acalanes, Pacifica at Mt. Diablo, Pittsburg at Las Lomas and Miramonte at Antioch.

MAY 31
State track meet at Los Angeles.

Knights Batter Rams In DVAL Play

The Las Lomas Knights moved ahead in the baseball pennant race May 15, when they won a 7-5 ball game from Pleasant Hill.

The Knights led the game 3-2 at the end of the third and then iced it in the bottom of the fourth when they tallied for four big runs.

IT CAME ABOUT when Roger Colwell singled and Dick Dodge was hit by a pitched ball to put two on. Clark Ransome followed with a single, scoring Colwell and Larry Drummond singled to drive in Dodge. Bob Riley walked and Don Hopkins creamed the cake with a single that drove in two more runs.

Tom Larched on the mound for the Rams was relieved at this point by Dick Barham who retired the side and threw shutout ball the rest of the way.

The Rams came back with three runs of their own in the fifth when Larched walked and went to second on a fielder's choice, then scoring on George Adam's single. Dennis Jordan hit a drive deep to left for a home run, scoring Adams ahead of him.

The Rams had collected 2 runs in the third when Larched and Bill Locetelli walked, followed by singles by Adams and Jordan.

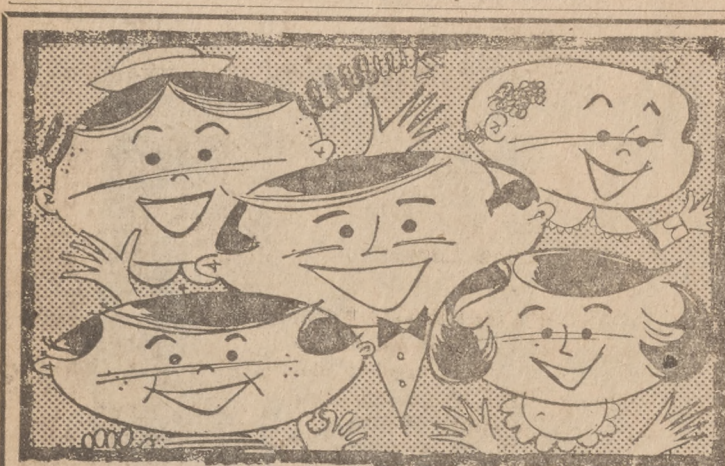

THAT WAS TIE, scoring for the day and a win for the Knights, who went into first place all alone as Diablo dropped an 8-4 decision to Antioch.

Batteries: PH—Larscheid, Barham and Adams; LL—Ransome, Hopkins, 3, Ransome, 5, and Dodge.

Panthers Rip Devils
The Diablo Red Devils were rudely upset 8-4 by the Antioch Panthers in a ball game played at Concord May 15.

The Diablo loss put Las Lomas in the number one spot as they defeated Pleasant Hill 7-5 and dropped the Devils to number two spot.

Pitt Collects 6 Runs for PH Win
Capitalizing on three hits, 10 walks and five errors, the Pittsburg Pirates chalked up a 6-0 win over the Pleasant Hill Rams Tuesday afternoon.

Drivers Slam, Bang Around At Pacheco

By JEAN MCGUIRE

One of the roughest and toughest nights this reporter has seen in two seasons occurred last Saturday night at the Contra Costa Speedway in Pacheco.

Tires were ripped off and thrown wildly around, cars were being hit and sent careening into the infield, and our faithful pit crew boys were demonstrating just how fast they could run. Either getting out of the way of a fast moving object, or helping the drivers untangle themselves.

JOHNNY FRANKLIN'S main event lucky streak was broken by Gene Dudley, but our resident drivers gave them both a good run for their money.

Walnut Creek's Herb Williams, driving car number 23, hereafter to be known only as "The Purple People Eater," is gathering steam fast this season. He came in second in the third heat, with Ronnie Case, in the Concord Auto Supply Special, following not too far behind.

Chief Bennett of Pacheco, in the C and C Auto Wrecking Special, number 37, is looking better week by week. He took third place in the first heat, but unfortunately car trouble forced him out of the final and semi-main event.

Jack Clayton, the most improved driver this year, according to track announcer Speed Reilly, was weaving his way through the traffic in the final heat, when he locked wheels with Pee Wee Waybright and was flipped "Once Over Lightly" as they reached the turn.

After being righted and retired to the rear of the pack, the local leadfoot had worked his way back to fifth position when the checked flag fell.

OWNER-DRIVER Wes Mortimer of Concord made his first appearance of the season Saturday night, driving the yellow double X. Mortimer qualified for the first heat and the semi-main event.

Tomorrow's program will carry a 25 lap main event, with time trials beginning at 7 p.m. Race at 8:15.

Matadors Take Golf Honors
The Miramonte Matadors wrapped up the 1958 golf title last Tuesday afternoon when they defeated Diablo High's divot-diggers by a 5-1 score.

Team matches for the season gave Miramonte 7½ points to 7 for the Acalanes Dons, who wound up in second place.

Matches were played at the Orinda Country Club.

Match scores—Bill Houston (m) def. Ken Oldson (D) 4 and 3; Don Minor def. Dave Sherrar (D) 4 and 3.

Jerry Overaa (M) def. Jack Bongenned (D) 3 and 2. Roger Moore (D) def. Mike Gillvian 2 up. Mark Little John (M) def. John Moore 1 up on 11th. Kurt Lundblad (M) def. Jim Colburn 3 and 2.

Matadors Come Close To Win

The Miramonte Matadors have not won a league game as yet, but they came mighty close May 15 when Acalanes had to pull out all the stops to eke out a 3-2 win.

Miramonte put two big runs on the scoreboard when Gordon Hightower walked in the first frame, went to second on Rob Anthonisen's hit and scored when Gary Lucas singled.

Hightower scored again in the third when he reached first on an error and came home as Lucas blasted a triple to deep right.

Acalanes, trailing 2-0 in the top of the sixth, came back with three runs to pull the game out of the fire.

Red Devils Dumped by Don Batmen

The Diablo Devils whipped the Dons 2-0 in the opening round of league baseball play—and while they scored two in the second game, it wasn't enough as the Acalanes bat boomed at the right time to ring up their fifth win in a row—7-2.

The Dons scored a pair in the opening frame after Gary Hansen on the mound for Acalanes set the Devils down in apple pie order, in the top of the first.

THE RUNS CAME when Don Nelson lead off with sharp line drive single to left, Hansen walked and Steve DeMaria was on to lead the bags when pitcher Lee Gritchuchin hit him with a pitched ball.

George McMeans drilled a line drive to second baseman Bud Peebles who grabbed it and doubled DeMaria off first.

The Dons' two run came when catcher Dave Bojarsky cracked out a single to left with Nelson and Hansen scoring standing up.

Diablo got a trally in the second when first baseman Frank Snyder was on via an error and came in when Chaplin's hit ball was batted at third by DeMaria.

THE DEVILS knotted count 2 all in the top of the 4th when Snyder hit one for a home run to deep deep left.

Acalanes used the same play to go ahead in the bottom of the 4th when Jim Holden cracked a drive to left field for a homer with two on ahead of him.

Bojarsky and Lou Corso had singled and advanced on Mike Kritcher's sacrifice bunt prior to the big blow.

Kritcher relieved Hansen in the third with two down and went the rest of the way to keep Diablo scoreless.

Acalanes added a pair of runs in the 5th to insure the win.

Acalanes had 8 hits to Diablo's 7, and committed 2 errors to Diablo's none.

Bojarsky had 2 for 2 for Acalanes at the plate with Corso going 2 for 3.

Snyder passed Diablo with his home run single in three trips to the plate.

Dons Cop North Coast Sub Section Track Meet

The Acalanes Dons proved to be come-through artists again last Friday when they copped the North Coast Sub Section meet at Castro Valley.

The Dons, fresh from the county title the previous week, posted 35 points while qualifying 8 for the North Coast finals to be held at Fremont High in Sunnyvale this afternoon.

Dixon Farmer of Miramonte put on another one-man show copping three firsts, good for 24 points, which placed the Orinda School 5th in the final tally.

Farmer copped the 180 lows in 19.6, won the 440 in 48.9 and made it a full day by winning the broad jump at 22-7¾. The leap set a new mark—(old mark 22-3½ by Stan Gray of Richmond in 1951).

THE DONS' POINTS came when Mike Latone won the pole vault at 12-8 (old record 12-6 by Stan Guant of Diablo, 1954). Dave Williamson of Acalanes was second at 13-3½.

Ernie Fox copped a second in the 120 yard high hurdles. Dave Carlson was third in the 440. Fox took third in the 180 lows. Leo McFarlane was second in the mile. Dewaine Stults took second in the discus, and John Phair had a fifth in the discus.

Dave Weill of Las Lomas was a blue ribbon winner with a record smashing discus throw of 11 4-7/8 (old mark 143-4, John Danner, Richmond, 1954).

Art Dalbey of Las Lomas was second in the high jump at 6-2.

Las Lomas wound up in 7th place with 13 points. Alhambra of Martinez was 8th with 11½ while Diablo, Pittsburg and Alameda each had 10 to tie for the 9th.

SECOND PLACE went to Harry Ellis' 27¾, while Richmond and Berkeley tied for 3rd with 26 each.

Piedmont won 15th with 3¾. San Ramon and Albany 16th, 3 each, while Antioch was 20th with 3.

Highlight of the meet was a discus toss of 142-2¾ by Pacifica's Glenn Hill which smashed the mark of 128¾ set by Sidney Lane of Encinal in 1956.

Other DVAL blue ribbons winners were Ledell Lavis of Pittsburg who high jumped 5' 10" while Pitt's Fred Galli won the shot at 55'-10½".

In the Bee meet, Encinal of Alameda outclassed the field with 32 points. Pittsburg was second with 22 and Antioch 3rd with 20.

Piedmont copped 6th with 13, Acalanes 10th with 11½. Mount Diablo 11th with 11, Pacifica rate 13th with 8, and San Ramon wound up with 2-3¾.

Antioch's Rich Reeves took the 70 yard high hurdles in 9.1. Local place winners were Rinne of Acalanes, second in the 150, Fred Lercari, Acalanes, 4th in 390, Doyle Turner, Acalanes, tied for 4th in the pole vault and the Acalanes relay team ran third.

Matadors Bow To Antioch Nine

Pacificia scored five runs in the third after trailing Miramonte 3-0 and then hung on to check out with an 8-7 win in Orinda Tuesday.

Miramonte was off to a good start scoring three in the bottom of the first when Randy Young walked, Frank Feldman won safe on an error and Gordon Hightower singled to plug the bases.

Rob Anthonisen parked a single to empty the bases as Anthonisen was out trying to stretch the hit to a double.

Miramonte scored a pair to knot the count at 5 all in the bottom of the fifth. It was 6-6 when each scored single runs in the fourth.

Pacificia came back with a single run in the fifth and what proved to be the game winning run in the six when Al Burton got the game's only extra base knock.

Phil Bancroft Gives Support To McIntosh

Phillip Bancroft Jr., 1500 Bancroft Road, Walnut Creek, who served as chairman of the 1956-1957 Contra Costa County Grand Jury, has declared his support of Bill McIntosh as Supervisor of the Third District.

Bancroft, a lifetime resident of the County and member of an old California family, stated, "I have known Bill McIntosh for many years and have great confidence in his ability and integrity. I feel that he will give the Third District good representation on the Board of Supervisors."

At a policy committee meeting this week, Sherwood Knight, 1341 Juanita Drive, Walnut Creek, campaign chairman, said, "I believe that 'Thrifty Mac', as we call Bill McIntosh, is the taxpayer's friend."

"From the standpoint of good government, it is vital at this time to have a man in the Third District who will carefully scrutinize tax expenditures and devote his time to the study of local problems with a view to helping taxpayers work out special local needs."

Volunteers Get Campaign Going

Hundreds of volunteers working in Congressman John F. Baldwin's campaign gathered at central locations this week in Danville, Lafayette, Richmond, Kensington, and in communities throughout Salano County to mail thousands of folders summarizing Baldwin's accomplishments.

Highlighting the numerous military installations in the Sixth District, Contra Costa and Solano Counties, the folder points out that Baldwin consistently has fought for adequate defense appropriations.

Marchus Urges 'Efficiency'

"We cannot afford to have idle brains and idle dollars," said Dr. Floyd I. Marchus, candidate in the June 3 primary for county superintendent of schools, in announcing that one of the major points of his platform is "efficiency in education."

The candidate said he is for "utilizing the manpower we have to the ultimate" and views as a challenge the fact that the office of the county superintendent must operate on a budget that is decreasing in proportion to the increasing enrollment in the schools. "This means we must operate with maximum efficiency,"

Dr. Marchus also affirms that it is the responsibility of the county superintendent to provide leadership in improving the tax structure. "The property tax is outmoded as a method of financing schools. Although more than 80 per cent of our national wealth is derived from sources other than property, in California 50 per cent of the school income is from property. We must work together to solve the problem of this disproportionate tax load."

The educator said he also favors teaming members of the county superintendent's staff with personnel from local school districts in working out problems of school curriculum and business, as has already been done in such projects as streamlining the purchasing system by eliminating 80 per cent of the former paper work.

Club Has Meeting

The Hilltop Garden Club of Orinda held its annual spring luncheon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. G. Markley, 1 Las Vegas.

Reed Urges Leadership in School Post

The County Superintendent of Schools should give effective leadership to both educators and lay people to secure better public understanding and support of legislation which will bring about a more equitable distribution of county, state, and national funds for the financing of local school districts, said William A. Reed, who is a candidate for the office.

Schools must be financed according to their needs rather than by such chance circumstances as having heavy industry located within school boundaries as an adequate tax source for school financing.

For example, it is not in the public interest that in some Contra Costa County school districts there is as much as $29,000 of assessed valuation for every child in elementary school whereas in other school districts — with just as much educational need — there is only $4500 of assessed valuation backing up each child in elementary school.

Although schools have been traditionally financed by local property taxes, most economists agree that property taxes are a shrinking source of tax wealth and cannot carry the burden of local school financing.

Young Promises Efficiency In Sheriff Post

With just two weeks remaining until election day, Sergeant Walter F. Young, candidate for Sheriff, announced his campaign was being stepped up for the home stretch.

Young said: "I am more than pleased with the progress so far. The hundreds of people who have volunteered to help me have been most kind, and I am really encouraged."

"As election day draws near, some of my opponents are making great promises to the voters as to their programs. I would like the people to know that I have no political axes to grind, no revolutionary promises to make. My sole interest in becoming Sheriff of our county is to provide the best law enforcement possible for the people who live in the county and who pay taxes. They have a right to good law enforcement."

Young continued, "When elected, my first promise to the already overburdened taxpayer is to put the patrol service at maximum efficiency, because I believe this is the primary function of the Sheriff's office. Without an efficiently operated patrol service, no other function of the Department can operate properly."

Kracke Has Union Help

Recommendation of Frederick C. Kracke, Lafayette Attorney and Executive Vice President and Legal Counsel of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, for the Judgeship of the Walnut Creek Judicial District by Roy Mattson, Business Agent of Carpenters Local 2046, Martinez, was acclaimed today by Walter P. Ruedrich, Orinda, Chairman of Kracke's campaign.

"Such recommendation by local 2046 whose jurisdiction includes the area covered by the Judicial District is a high tribute to Kracke who has represented the Contractors in negotiations with the Carpenters Union for the past 10 years," Ruedrich said.

Business Agent Roy Mattson's statement regarding the recommendation of Kracke, "He has been fair, sincere and honest in his dealings with us. We recommend him personally — help him out at the polls on June 3rd," received particular recognition from Ruedrich.

Enjoy MORE POWER!

More electric POWER can make your location look more attractive and step up income!

Surveys show the average sales increase with new lighting ranges from 19% with automobile dealers to 40% with hardware stores, with the middle bracket showing gains of 21% for apparel shops, 24% for drug stores, 20% for food stores, 24% for gas stations, 27% for furniture and appliance stores, 22% for general merchandise, and 37% for jewelry stores.

Better lighting stops twice as many passersby, pulls one-third more of them into the store, steps up impulse buying, cuts down errors, returns, and accidents. It also results in a better sales and office force because it cuts out that tired feeling of eye fatigue.

Well-planned lighting in a professional office makes patients and clients relax while they wait in an atmosphere of competence and efficiency, and reduces mistakes in typing and other office machine work.

Stay modern and keep up with competitors — call an electrical contractor using qualified electricians, and get a free estimate on your power needs.

Valley Art to Feature Famous Impressionist Art

Ten world famous post-impressionists' paintings, distinctive hand-woven fashions, garden sculpture, mosaics and ceramics will be shown at Valley Art Center's June 29th Art and Garden show.

Displayed midst the beauty of Dr. and Mrs. B. Fletcher Taylor's home at 3675 Nordstrom Road, Lafayette, the summer evening of fine art and clothing will be further enhanced by a demonstration of wine tasting by Weibel and Sons.

Many lovely local matrons will model the hand-woven fashions, loomed by the blind, and designed into shirts, capri pants, dresses, jackets and coats. Margaret Hardy, formerly of I. Magnin design staff, has fashioned beautiful tie and sports shirts for men and made them available to Valley Art Center by Mr. Harold Anderson, manager of Merit of California.

The presentation of ten post impressionist paintings is the high light of the evening, loaned by Mr. and Mrs. M. Donald Whyte of Twain Harle, California. There will be three abstractions by Pablo Picasso; a head of a woman by Amedeo Modigliani; three landscapes interpreted by Raoul Dufy; and abstractions by Georges Braque; one painting each, of Andre Derain and Maurice Utrillo. Mr. Whyte is the son of the founder of the world renowned Whyte Galleries. He is generously loaning this part of his extensive art treasures for this Valley Art show, June 29th.

Fun Fair Gives Children 'The Time of Their Lives'

Thousands of children (and adults) had the time of their lives last week-end during Broadway's Fun Fair, which included a puppet show, a famous circus clown, free gas-filled balloons, a unique Hurdy-Gurdy organ and frolicking monkey.

George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association, said, "The turnout indicates that the people enjoyed the Fun Fair. The Broadway merchants always wish to be responsive to the wishes and desires of the people they serve. We hope we can continue to do so in the future."

Broadway Stores Are Open Thurs. and Friday Nights

Broadway Shopping Center in Walnut Creek is now open Thursday nights, in addition to Friday nights, George Webster, Broadway Merchants Association chairman, announced.

Hours on Thursdays and Fridays will be 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Capwell's, however, is open until 9:30 both nights.

This will allow families to do their shopping in the evening, when dad is home from the office," Webster said.

"And there is plenty of time to eat downtown, if desired, and get in a lot of shopping afterwards."

Webster said, "Often people prefer to visit Broadway on another night besides Friday. That is why the stores decided this new service is necessary."

Diablo Players' Tender Trap Plays May 31-June 7

The plight of a bachelor besieged by the attentions of lovely women will be portrayed in the Diablo Playhouse's production of "The Tender Trap," May 31 and June 7, at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center at 8:30 p.m.

Under the direction of Leon Dinkin, "The Tender Trap" will be produced in cooperation with the Diablo Art Federation's May Pageant or Arts.

This delightful three-act comedy pokes fun at suburban living, machelors, married men, and the plight of 30-35 year old unmarried women.

The bachelor, Charlie Reader, will be portrayed by Frank Sher. His married friend, Joe McCall, who is the same age as Charlie but shows a few more signs of wear, will be played by Jack Varner.

Ethel Appel as Sylvia Crewes is the beautiful woman in her early thirties who is something special in Charlie's life. Phyllis Sher plays the part of Julie Gillis, who is only 22 years old, and leads Charlie a merry chase.

In supporting roles are Ruth Dolgin as Poppy Mattson, Fred Marcus as Earl Linquist, Eleanor Silverman as Jessica Collins; and Dick Corriveau as Sol Schwartz.

The setting in Charlie Reader's New York bachelor apartment will show a panoramic view of the city and will be decorated with furniture from Jackson's of Walnut Creek. The furs for the lovely Sylvia Crewes will be supplied by Harel Furs.

Tickets for "Tender Trap" are available from members of the Diablo Playhouse, at the box office on nights of the performance. Tickets sell for $1.

Helps in Sale

Mrs. James Mitchell of Lafayette aided in the Golden Gate Kindergarten Association Auxiliary rummage sale Monday.

Museum Expert Is Diablo Art Speaker Monday

Miss Hazel Bray of the Oakland Art Museum will speak at the Diablo Art Association general meeting on Monday at 8 p.m. in the Walnut Creek Recreation Center.

Because some members of the association feel that they may be ready to submit entries to some of the larger Bay Area art exhibits, they decided a lecture covering the general rules governing the acceptance or rejection of entries would be timely.

The question "What constitutes a professional artist—what is an amateur?" has arisen during the past few months. Miss Bray received her fine arts education at Mills College, Oakland, and has been educational assistant to museum director Paul Mills for the past five years.

Much of her museum work has been in conjunction with the hanging and jurying of art shows as well as teaching painting and crafts to adult and children classes.

At the end of her lecture, on "The Ethics and Rules of Juried Exhibition," Miss Bray answers questions. A coffee gallery will be held at the end of the meeting.

Dinkin, Winkworth Star In Tonight's 'Prince'

When the curtain goes up tonight on The Dramateurs production of "The Sleeping Prince," theatergoers will see Edith Dinkin and Bruce Winkworth in leading roles.

Edith Dinkin is the mother of two teen-age daughters, one of whom is appearing in the play with her — Miss Tina Dinkin.

Edith was formerly with the Intimate Theater, and the Lafayette Players, and is the wife of Director Leon Dinkin of the Diablo Playhouse.

She is well-known in the bay area as a talented artist, and has had many exhibits locally as well as having taught art classes.

Daughter, Tina, is a student at Los Lomas High, and has had previous experience in acting with the Walnut Creek Intimate Theater.

Mrs. Dinkin will be remembered for her performances in, "Picnic," "Come Back Little Sheba," and "The Little Foxes."

Bruce Winkworth, former Dramateur president, has starred in many previous Dramateur productions such as "The Gioconda Smile," "Point of No Return," and "Bus Stop." He devotes as much of his spare time working on sets as he does on acting. He is the father of four daughters.

Rabies Clinics Will Open Soon

Starting June 7, low-cost rabies vaccination clinics for dogs will be set up by licensed veterinarians in several areas of the county, it was announced.

Dates and locations of clinics will be announced soon. The clinics are being established in compliance with the new state legislation for rabies control.

Under this law whenever any animal in the county, wild or pet, develops rabies, the county is declared an "endemic rabies area" for a period of one year.

During this year all dogs must be vaccinated and licensed. State law requires vaccination of any dog by four months of age, as a prerequisite to licensing. A standard fee of $2 for each dog vaccinated will be charged in all county clinics.

As a convenience for dog owners, a returnable envelope-type application form for dog licenses will be distributed at clinics, or by veterinarians or at the Martinez or Richmond office of the County Clerk.

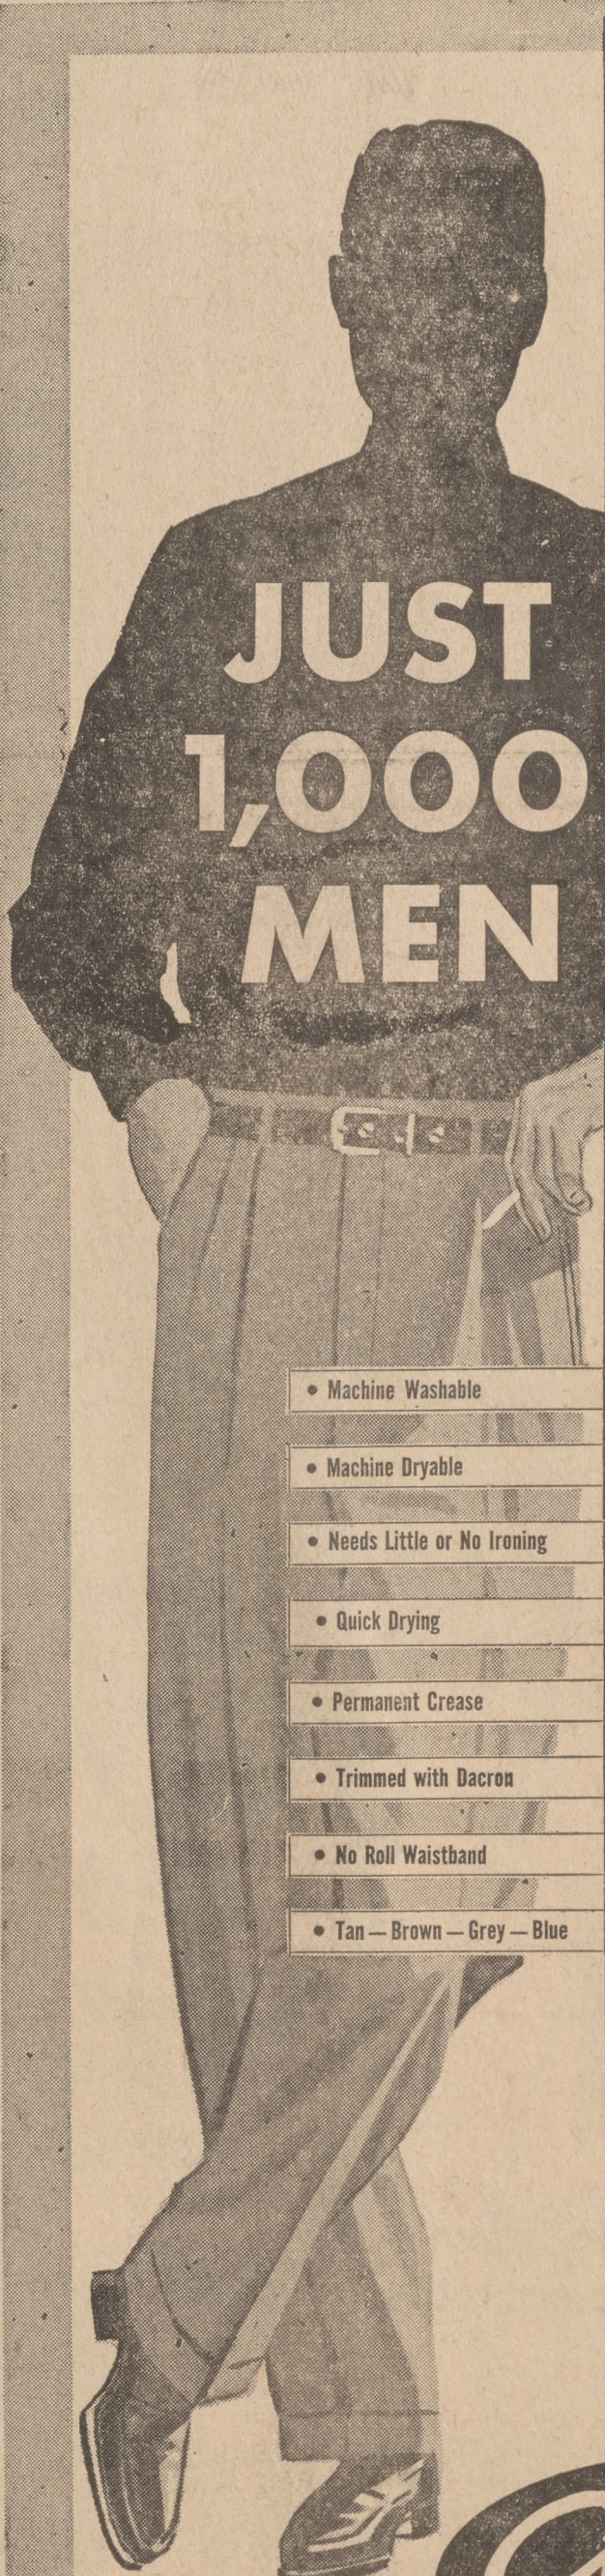

A license must be obtained for any dog three months of age or over on an annual renewal basis. Contra Costa County license fee is $3.

Mrs. Genevieve Bayley was installed as the new president of Mt. Diablo Business Professional Women's Club in the Danville Hotel. She succeeds Mrs. Scott Pen-covic.

When the days get warmer the appreciation of shade trees in the yard gets higher; calls our attention to the benefits of "air conditioning" the garden through the use of quick-growing trees. Maybe you want a tree that lets in sun in winter, keeps it out in summer; or you might prefer an evergreen tree. We have the best varieties of either type. Come in and see!

One of the most colorful vines in spring is the wisteria. The plants we have in 5-gallon containers are big and bushy. They don't fool around—they take off and grow! Your choice of several colors.

If you have been putting off buying shade trees or a few colorful vines for your garden because of a tight budget, don't wait any longer. Buy your plants and garden supplies on our 90-day budget plan. Come in and let us tell you about it. No interest or carrying charges.

Red Poppies Will Honor War Dead

As Memorial Day draws near the American Legion Auxiliary will take their baskets or bright red crepe paper poppies on the streets asking the public to wear them — as a personal tribute in memory of the War Dead.

The poppy was adopted by the American Legion in 1920 as their official Memorial flower, to be worn in memory of those who gave their lives in World War I, and to aid the disabled and their families.

The next year the American Legion Auxiliary also adopted it as the official flower. But it was not until 1922 that the red crepe paper poppy came into being, when for the first time they were made in the hospitals by disabled veterans. Crepe paper was selected because it provided the maximum in work and was found to be more flexible in those hands made weak and crippled from their war experiences.

Home Buyers Have "School"

The first sessions of the "School for Home Buyers" held at the east campus of the Contra Costa Junior College were a complete success, according to Johnson Clark, spokesman for the sponsoring groups.

The remaining two sessions are to be held at the college campus May 29 and June 5 at 7 p.m., Clark stated. This project is jointly sponsored by the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County and the Contra Costa Real Estate Board.

Final Youth, Sex, Marriage Talk is Sunday

The final lecture in the series, "Youth, Sex and Marriage," sponsored by the Board of Christian Education of the Central Contra Costa County Council of Churches will be given by the Rev. Robert Rodenmayer on Sunday.

The lecture will be at 7:30 p.m. at St. Michael and All Angels' Episcopal Church in Concord. The meeting is open to all high school students. The Rev. Robert Rodenmayer, whose talk is entitled "Stars in Your Eyes" is professor of pastoral theology at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Berkeley. Dr. Rodenmayer received his

B.A. degree from Hobart College, his M.A. degree from Harvard University and S.T.B. and S.T.D. degrees from General Theological Seminary.

He was a parish minister in Gloucester, Massachusetts for six years before going to Northampton, Mass., as rector of St. John's Episcopal Church and chaplain at Smith College. For six years "Father Bob" was chairman of the National College Commission of the Episcopal Church. In 1952 Dr. Rodenmayer came to Berkeley as a professor at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific and associate rector at St. Mark's Episcopal Church. He has continued to be active in the college and university ministry. Young people from the churches will be in charge of the service. The worship service will be conducted by the members of the Westminster Fellowship of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Pleasant Hill.

The moderator will be from the Young People's Fellowship of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church of Orinda; and the hospitality will be furnished by the Methodist Youth Fellowship of San Ramon Valley Methodist Church of Alamo. A fellowship time will follow the lecture.
